Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

"A good tree does not bear rotten fruit, nor does a rotten tree bear good fruit." (Luke 6:43)

Are you using your God-given gifts in the way God intended? Do you compare yourself to others and complain about what you don't have instead of being thankful for what you do have? God gives each of us unique gifts and a unique plan. Listen to how God is calling you to use your gifts, to bear good fruit, for the glory of His name.

Attn:

All IHM Girls and Boy CYO Soccer players

My name is Chris Kanis and I am the new soccer coordinator as well as 7/8 team coach. If you're a soccer enthusiast of any type (player, fan, FIFA legend) I would love to work with you. We're assembling 2 coed teams, 5th/6th grade and 7th/8th grade to compete. I'm in the process of securing a space where I'm hoping to at least hold 1 weekly practice. Love for the beautiful game is a must, getting touches on the ball is paramount and team bonding is essential. If you'd like to represent IHM on the journey to a CYO Soccer championship please follow the registration link below. Letting our passion show in our game and our compassion show in our sportsmanship will be the primary focus...hanging banners is a byproduct. Feel free to email with any questions at cakanis@yahoo.com

To register for soccer, you must complete the following steps:

1. Register through the IHM website and pay registration fees. (Fee waivers are available, contact the IHM athletic directors listed below for more information). CYO Athletics - Immaculate Heart of Mary - Immaculate Heart Of Mary
2. Register with the CYO central office. No fee is required. Athletics ParticipantRegistration.aspx
- 3.

If the student-athlete has not participated in an IHM Sport in 2018/19:

1. Have an annual physical conducted and turn in form in the IHM parish office. <https://ihmindy.org/wp-content/uploads/2014/05/Physical-Form-2013-14-copy2.pdf>
2. Read, complete and sign the concussion and sudden cardiac arrest awareness form. Turn in forms to IHM parish office. <https://ihmindy.org/wp-content/uploads/2017/04/CandSCA-Acknowledgement-form.pdf>

IHM Track

Calling all track enthusiasts! The IHM track season will begin on Monday, March 11. We practice at 6pm on Monday, Wednesday and Friday evenings with meets on Sunday afternoons. Outreach Corner

The Hidden Housing Crisis

For most of us, home is the center of our lives. Home is where we can "be ourselves" – where we can relax and enjoy life. It is a place to raise a family, share a life together, create memories that last a lifetime. Homes are the centers of a community too, creating an environment where neighbors jointly thrive, schools are supported, and community pride is evident.

If you don't have a stable home, you don't have a stable life. If your life isn't stable, then your family isn't stable either, and the net result can be catastrophic. Families who move frequently (several times a year) never establish roots in a community, the children are never settled in a school, and life becomes a losing battle against disruption. Families who pay 60% to 70% of their monthly income for housing are in an unsustainable situation. Evictions used to be rare. But today, for many poor Americans eviction has become a way of life. Indianapolis has the dubious distinction of having the 14th highest eviction rate in the U.S., amounting to more than 30 households a day being dissolved by eviction orders.

Matthew Desmond's groundbreaking book Evicted: Poverty and Profit in the American City follows tenants and landlords swept up in the process of eviction in Milwaukee, WI. Drawing on the urban reports and original statistical data gathered for the book, his book reveals that eviction is a cause, not just a condition, of poverty, and that the face of America's eviction epidemic belongs to mothers and children. Presenting new insights into the fundamental role housing plays in deepening inequality in America, Desmond affirms the centrality of home, without which nothing else is possible.

Matthew Desmond was the featured speaker for "The Hidden Housing Crisis" on February 28, 2019 at Newfields. The event was sold out weeks ago, so if you did not attend watch for future Outreach Corners summarizing this important event.

Volunteers Needed for Church Cleaning Ministry at IHM

Volunteers are needed to help keep our beautiful Immaculate Heart of Mary Church... well, Immaculate!!

This does NOT involve a deep cleaning or janitorial level approach. Once a week, our teams straighten the books in the pews, remove items left after church through the week, and change the Holy Water. The cleaning requires about 45 min each week and less if you work in teams of two or three! Each person or group works for a one-month shift. This is a great way to give back to IHM and it's also a fantastic opportunity to experience our beautiful church in moments of quiet and serenity.

Please contact Vicki Christ at vickichrist@aol.com for inquiries!!!
