Fourth Sunday of Lent

"No longer was there manna for the Israelites, who that year ate of the yield of the land of Canaan." (Joshua 5:12)

Over the forty years that the Israelites journeyed through the desert, God provided them with manna to eat. As soon as they were able to enjoy the fruits of the Promised Land the manna ceased. Likewise, God's blessings to us may change over the years but it is important to trust that God will always provide us with all that we need.

Push Back Poverty

Faith & Action 2019 Spring Conference
Featuring Fr. Greg Boyle, Homeboy Industries
Thursday, May 2, 2019

Eastern Star Church, 5730 E 30th St., Indianapolis, IN 46218
Please join us on May 2 for the Faith & Action Spring Conference. Together, we'll discover and share ways to "Push Back Poverty" in Indianapolis.

The Faith & Action Project at Christian Theological Seminary is dedicated to helping to spark a revolution of hope by bringing together faith communities, nonprofit organizations and leaders in business and government in a collaborative effort to turn back the tide of poverty.

For this year's event, we'll gather at Eastern Star Church for a morning of insights anchored by keynote speaker Father Greg Boyle. A dynamic storyteller, Boyle is a Jesuit priest and founder of Homeboy Industries in Los Angeles, the largest gang intervention, rehabilitation and re-entry program in the world. His book, Tattoos on the Heart: The Power of Boundless Compassion, is a New York Times bestseller. He'll share the platform with two young men who have participated in Homeboy programs.

You also will hear from Faith & Action Project grant recipients, who will discuss their programs and how the grants have helped them scale up and increase their impact.

At noon, the Faith & Action Project will hold an informational meeting for organizations interested in applying for 2019 Faith & Action Project grants.

Please plan to attend and join the city's effort to Push Back Poverty, and be sure to invite friends from your church, colleagues and coworkers, peers in service organizations and on boards, and anyone else who might be interested.

For more information on the Faith & Action Project go to <http://www.cts.edu/faith-action-project/> which includes a link to register for the event
