Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Jesus said to him, 'Go and do likewise.'" (Luke 10:37)

This was Jesus' command at the end of the Good Samaritan story. Did you know that the Samaritans and Jews despised each other. The moral of the story is to love our neighbor. That means loving someone you may not know or someone that looks different than you or someone that you don't like. All without expecting anything in return.

NOTE: The Parish Office Summer Hours are 9:00 am - 3:00 pm M-Th & 9:00 am - 12:00 pm F.

IHM Golf Outing ~ Save the Date

I'm taking over the IHM golf outing this year for Scott Lowe who's done a great job putting this on in the past. I just wanted to remind everyone that the outing this year will be on August 25th, 2019 which is the Sunday after the IHM Fall Fest. I'm working right now to get the details of where we're playing and the cost and everything else but wanted to send out a save the date on when we're playing this year. Typically it's been a men's outing but the past few years we've had a few ladies trickle in to play which is encouraged. Everyone is welcome to play. We will play a scramble format so players of all levels can join in. You will want to get together a foursome of your choice. If you are interested, please save August 25th this year on your calendar and you can email me as well and let me know if you want to play or have questions.

My email is canderson1740@gmail.com (new address since last week).

Catholic Accompaniment and Reflective Experience

Catholic Social Teaching defines Rights and Responsibilities in this way: “Catholic tradition teaches that human dignity can be protected, and a healthy community can be achieved only if human rights are protected and responsibilities are met. Therefore, every person has a fundamental right to life and a right to those things required for human decency. Corresponding to these rights are duties and responsibilities--to one another, to our families, and to the larger society.” The Catholic Social Teaching Principles of Migration include:

- People have a right to find opportunities in their homeland.
- People have the right to migrate to support themselves and their families.
- Sovereign nations have a right to control their borders.
- Refugees and asylum seekers should be afforded protection.
- The human dignity and human rights of undocumented migrants should be respected.

During his keynote address at the Parish Social Ministries convening in the fall of 2018, Archbishop Thompson spoke about the danger of living in a culture of seeing through the eyes of “either/or”, instead of a culture that emphasizes “both/and”. He got straight to the point when he asserted that when we live in a culture of “either/or” or “black and white”, we can fall into the temptation of forming judgments that may close our minds and hearts to learning from each other, which eventually can translate to the start of demonizing each other. We are called to uphold the dignity of all people, but to do that there will be times when we will need to stand in the breach of the divide, which can be filled with challenges and tension.

The newest Catholic Charities - Social Concerns ministry called CARE (Catholic Accompaniment and Reflective Experience) is a great example of standing in that breach of the divide. The CARE Program is committed to connecting Catholic volunteers and parishes with fellow community members who are undocumented immigrants, unaccompanied children, and their families in need of accompaniment and emotional, social service, and spiritual support when integrating into their communities or attempting to comply with immigration laws and policies.

Hope for Hurting Marriages

We're on vacation. Why are we still arguing constantly? Been there. Done that. And it's no fun. But Retrouvaille can help. Retrouvaille, (pronounced retro-vi with a long i) can help couples work through difficult struggles in their marriages that seem at times impossible to repair. Since 1977, this program's tools have helped strengthen and improve the marriages of tens of thousands of couples throughout the world. These couples experienced marital difficulty at all levels, including disillusionment and deep misery. Indianapolis Retrouvaille will hold its next weekend Aug. 9-12 at St. Joseph's Retreat Center in Tipton, Ind. The weekend introduces couples to important communication tools. In the privacy of a beautiful retreat setting, you will examine your life together in a new and positive way. After the weekend, you will attend six follow-up sessions at Our Lady of Fatima Retreat House in Indianapolis. Post-weekend topics focus on specific issues, including conflict management. You can begin again. Learn more and register today at www.helpourmarriage.org or call 317-489-6811 for confidential registration information.  Becoming a prophetic person starts with a spiritual practice. It moves from silence to thought to word and action. When our words and actions are rooted in our spiritual commitments, we become a light in the world and a force for good. An entry point into our own deep wisdom. Using the tools of music, poetry, storytelling and imagery, we explore the landscape of our own experience, mining it for insight and ideas about the work ahead.
