The Mission of Immaculate Heart of Mary

The Immaculate Heart of Mary parish strives to be a vibrant Catholic community with the Gospel of Jesus Christ as our guide. We invite those who seek to strengthen their spirituality and develop their relationships with God through our dynamic liturgy, life long learning, and sharing faith within and outside our community.

Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Take care to guard against all greed, for though one may be rich, one's life does not consist of possessions." (Luke 12:15)

The Gospel message today is contrary to our modern culture where advertising continually tries to convince us that our value lies in the things we possess. Jesus showed us that our true value lies in the way we live our lives. He challenges us to not hoard material possessions, but rather to live a grateful and generous lifestyle and become more "other-centered" and less "self-centered."

NOTE: The Parish Office Summer Hours are 9:00 am - 3:00 pm M-Th & 9:00 am - 12:00 pm F.

IHM to Offer CHANGING LIVES FOREVER to Address Systemic Poverty

"Give a man a fish, and you feed him for a day. Teach a man to fish, and you feed him for a lifetime."

Changing Lives Forever is a 9-week class on Mondays and Thursdays to help individuals living in poverty to find resources and develop a plan to improve the quality of their lives. Once participants have a plan, mentors will work with each participant for a year to help them to achieve their goals. In the process participants will also develop a support network with others in their group.

The program has been running successfully at the SVDP food pantry in Indianapolis since 2011. Immaculate Heart of Mary Parish will offer the program on the north side of Indianapolis at the Martin Luther King Center on 40th Street. It will begin Monday, September 9th. The program is free and open to all.

Outreach Corner Breaking A Cycle

One of the topics that comes up again and again in conversations about poverty is incarceration.

It makes sense, because, statistically speaking, incarceration emerges consistently as both a by-product of poverty and a cause of poverty. In other words, we often learn that men and women emerging from prison were living in poverty before they were incarcerated. Then the weight of a prison record, the loss of employment and the many other complicating factors that accompany them as they re-enter the community immediately put them on the brink of poverty – if not fully into it – all over again.

Of course, when this happens, it's not just the person who has been in prison who is affected. Families suffer as well, which far too often works to perpetuate this vicious poverty-prison-poverty cycle.

The good news is that this cycle doesn't always continue. It is possible for men and women emerging from prison to disrupt that cycle and find a new way in life. Programs such as St. Vincent de Paul's Changing Lives Forever and Goodwill's New Beginnings both offer a hand-up to help break the cycle of poverty. When we allow people to lift themselves up and discover a new dignity and purpose, we truly equip them to succeed and, in so doing, to break cycles that too often overshadow our community's families.
