"For where your treasure is, there also will your heart be." (Luke 12:34)

Jesus encourages us to build up our treasure in heaven. The world encourages us to build up our treasure in real estate, investments, and material goods. How much time are you investing in building up a worldly treasure? How much time are you investing in building up a heavenly treasure? To invest more time in the things of heaven, you must let go of some of the things of this world.

IHM to Offer CHANGING LIVES FOREVER to Address Systemic Poverty

"Give a man a fish, and you feed him for a day. Teach a man to fish, and you feed him for a lifetime."

Changing Lives Forever is a 9-week class on Mondays and Thursdays to help individuals living in poverty to find resources and develop a plan to improve the quality of their lives. Once participants have a plan, mentors will work with each participant for a year to help them to achieve their goals. In the process participants will also develop a support network with others in their group.

The program has been running successfully at the SVDP food pantry in Indianapolis since 2011. Immaculate Heart of Mary Parish will offer the program on the north side of Indianapolis at the Martin Luther King Center on 40th Street. It will begin Monday, September 9th. The program is free and open to all.

Your help is needed in serving as a Mentor and/or Chef for weekly meals. See the request below for Chefs.

Catholic Bishops Oppose Death Penalty Resumption

Bishop Frank J. Dewane, Bishop of the Diocese of Venice and Chairman of the USCCB's Committee on Domestic Justice and Human Development has issued a statement on the federal government's decision to resume the use of the death penalty. The full statement follows:

"In his address to Congress during his 2015 Apostolic visit to the United States, Pope Francis, echoing the views of his predecessors, called for 'the global abolition of the death penalty.' He further stated that, '[A] just and necessary punishment must never exclude the dimension of hope and the goal of rehabilitation.' As the Catechism of the Catholic Church now provides, 'The death penalty is inadmissible because it is an attack on the inviolability and dignity of the person.'

At their meeting in June, the Catholic Bishops of the United States voted overwhelmingly to update the Catechism for use by adults in the United States to reflect this position. This is consistent with comparable calls by the Bishops for over forty years, including in their 2005 statement, A Culture of Life and the Penalty of Death.

In light of these long held and strongly maintained positions, I am deeply concerned by the announcement of the United States Justice Department that it will once again turn, after many years, to the death penalty as a form of punishment. I urge instead that Federal officials take this teaching into consideration, as well as the evidence showing its unfair and biased application, and abandon the announced plans to implement the death penalty once more."

All federal executions take place in the Federal Corrections Complex in Terre Haute, IN; about 60 inmates are on death row there. More details, including comments from Archbishop Thompson, are included in The Criterion for August 2, 2019.
