"It is written: The Lord, your God, shall you worship and him alone shall you serve."

(Matthew 4:10)

Tempted between the riches and power of this world and service to God, Jesus chose service to His Father. If we wish to truly follow Jesus, we, too, must decide to turn away from worldly power and riches and put God at the center of our lives. Lent is our time to prune ourselves of earthly things. Ask God how he is calling you to serve.*

Outreach Corner

Interfaith Hospitality Network

Homelessness can seem like an overwhelming problem. Many people wonder what one person or congregation can do to truly make a difference.

The Interfaith Hospitality Network (IHN), a program of Family Promise of Greater Indianapolis, is a way for volunteers and congregations to address the challenge of family homelessness by using existing resources. The volunteers from over 60 congregations around Indianapolis bring hospitality. Their service and in-kind congregational facilities makes it cost efficient. And with intensive case management from trained staff, lives are significantly impacted for the long term.

Each congregation participating in the Interfaith Hospitality Network provides overnight lodging and meals for four families (up to 14 people) for one week at a time. Each congregation takes a turn hosting three or four weeks per year. Network "guests" stay in each congregation from 6:00 pm to 7:00 am daily. Each morning guests drive or ride in the IHN van to the Family Promise Day Center. Children generally then go to school or daycare, while most adults go to work at various locations in and around Indianapolis. The adults who either cannot work or are seeking work meet with a case manager and build skills for lasting financial stability while applying for housing and/or employment.

The volunteers are the lifeblood of the program. Volunteers set up the rooms and beds on Sunday. They cook and serve a meal each night. They provide bag lunches and easy breakfast foods. They plan activities for children and families, and engage with everyone present. They sleep overnight in a fifth room. They drive the guests in the IHN van to the Day Center each morning, and then drive guests back to the congregation each evening. They wash the sheets at the end of the week, they pack up the beds, and they drop the trailer and van off at the next congregation the following Sunday.

Approximately 50 families are served each year in the IHN program. On average, more than 70% of the families served will gain long-term housing while in the program. Not only does this high success rate mean many more families stably housed, it is also a tremendous cost saving to the community as a diversion from far more expensive interventions.

Fast & Abstinence

Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are obligatory days of fasting and abstinence for Catholics. In addition, Fridays during Lent are obligatory days of abstinence.

For members of the Latin Catholic Church, the norms on fasting are obligatory from age 18 until age 59. When fasting, a person is permitted to eat one full meal, as well as two smaller meals that together are not equal to a full meal. The norms concerning abstinence from meat are binding upon members of the Latin Catholic Church from age 14 onwards. By the three fold discipline of fasting, almsgiving and prayer, the Church Keeps Lent from Ash Wednesday until the evening of Holy Thursday.
