5692 Central Avenue | Indianapolis, Indiana 46220 | 317-257-2266

"Or who has given the Lord anything that he may be repaid?" (Romans 11:35)

St. Paul reminds us of a central fact of stewardship. We cannot give the Lord anything - God already owns it all. God made everything. All we can do is return a portion of God's many gifts back to Him. Sincere gratitude for our gifts opens our hearts to joyful generosity! Through your generous sharing, you just may be the answer to someone's prayer.*

Leader In Me ~ IHM School

Goal Setting (Leadership Binders)

As a new school year opens for students and families it is the time to reflect on last year's goals. Did you meet them? Do you need to do something differently this year to improve on them? Maybe you want to change your goals. What was your biggest challenge last year in the classroom as well as during E-learning? What was successful for you and why? As we all navigate through COVID-19 what learning and personal goals can/should you set for yourself to help you learn and take responsibility for what you can do to help keep yourself focused and on target with your learning and actions? Things to consider when setting goals could be: what caused you challenges and why? What went well and why? How did you feel about your previous goals? Once you decide on your learning and personal goals then you need to consider what and how you will meet the goals. (extra studying or skill practice, asking for help, being more organized, completing assignments/task timely etc....) Students greatly benefit from seeing the adults in their lives doing the same reflections and goal setting especially at this time. They learn so much from our actions just as Jesus' followers and apostles did from him.

St. Vincent de Paul Meeting

IHM Conference of St. Vincent de Paul meets on the first Wednesday of the month at 7 p.m. It is a Zoom meeting in order to comply with the quarantine. The next Zoom meeting is September 2nd at 7 p.m. To be included in the meeting please forward your email address to klainslie@icloud.com. Then you will receive an invite from Zoom with the link and password. Download the Zoom app for Windows or Apple computer or Android or Apple smartphone to facilitate participation in the meeting.

Are You Interested In Becoming Catholic?

Are you an adult interested in becoming Catholic? Are you baptized Catholic but never received First Communion or the Sacrament of Confirmation?

You are invited to join RCIA, starting September 14! We will meet once a week on Mondays from 7 to 9 pm, hopefully in person.

RCIA, i.e. the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults, is the Catholic Church's way of initiating new members. It consists of appropriate spiritual formation for each interested individual and the reception of the Sacraments of Initiation, i.e. Baptism, First Holy Communion, and/or Confirmation after approximately one year of preparation. In most cases, the initiation of new members is celebrated at the Easter Vigil.

If you are interested, please email the Director of Religious Education, Ute Eble, at ueble@ihmindy.org or call (317) 257-2266 ext. 102. You are also invited if you are already Catholic but want to learn about our faith on an adult level, or if you feel called to share your faith and help the RCIA candidates with their formation.

Sunday Faith Formation For Children

Please note that sign-ups for Sunday Faith Formation for children will start next week and instructions will start September 20!

A Catholic Framework for Economic Life

The Catholic bishops of the United States believe in building an economy that works for all, encompassing a range of issues, including food security and hunger, work and joblessness, homelessness and affordable housing, and tax credits for low-income families, as well as protecting programs that serve poor and vulnerable people throughout the federal budget. Here are some key points of this framework:

1. The economy exists for the person, not the person for the economy.
2. All economic life should be shaped by moral principles. Economic choices and institutions must be judged by how they protect or undermine the life and dignity of the human person, support the family and serve the common good.
3. A fundamental moral measure of any economy is how the poor and vulnerable are faring.
4. All people have a right to life and to secure the basic necessities of life (e.g., food, clothing, shelter, education, health care, safe environment, economic security.)
5. All people have the right to economic initiative, to productive work, to just wages and benefits, to decent working conditions as well as to organize and join unions or other associations.
6. All people, to the extent they are able, have a responding duty to work responsibly to provide the needs of their families and an obligation to contribute to the broader society.
7. In economic life, free markets have both clear advantages and limits; government has essential responsibilities and limitations; voluntary groups have irreplaceable roles, but cannot substitute for the proper working of the market and the just policies of the state.
8. Society has an obligation, including governmental action where necessary, to assure opportunity, meet basic human needs, and pursue justice in economic life.
9. Workers, owners, managers, stockholders and consumers are moral agents in economic life. By our choices, initiative, creativity and investment, we enhance or diminish economic opportunity, community life and social justice.
10. The global economy has moral dimensions and human consequences. Decisions on investment, trade, aid and development should protect human life and promote human rights, especially for those most in need wherever they might live on this globe.

GOSPEL MEDITATION
ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

The only way to know God is to love God. Our minds will never fully grasp the mystery of God, but our hearts and souls can learn to love the mystery. Years ago, when life had a more innocent quality to it, we believed what we were told or witnessed, unless there was direct evidence otherwise. This was especially true if the information came from someone in authority. In a sense, we were a bit more gullible on one hand but also more trusting on the other. The latter is an admirable quality that sadly can be eroded when we realize we have been duped. With education and technological advances, we find ourselves more skeptical and less likely to too quickly accept and believe what we see and hear.

For all of the good that social media can do, it can also easily distort reality and truth. Photoshop and a myriad other technological truths can add to, fabricate, and make even the non-existent seem real. It is amazing. How far do we allow this obviously justifiable skepticism to take us? Questioning and doubting are healthy elements of any good relationship as long as we don't allow them to turn us away from a deeper experience of love and encounter. If we cannot get our minds around something or empirically justify or prove it, we tend to declare it a hoax, untrue, or unauthentic and walk away. The very same trust that can quickly be eroded is exactly what is essential for all of our relationships, especially our relationship with God. With all things and people that make a profound claim on us, we have to trust in the absence of knowledge. Full self-investment involves plunging completely into the unknown!

Simon Peter said to Jesus, "You are the Christ, the Son of the Living God." Peter came to this knowledge, which is not "head knowledge" because of the relationship he shared with Jesus and what God was able to reveal in and through that relationship. Peter simply "knew" because of love that this is who Jesus really is. The silent exchange of love between friends, and not an intellectual exercise of the mind, brought Peter to this place. When we stop and think about it, there are many things in life that we simply know but do not completely understand. When someone sacrifices their own well-being for another, it may not make intellectual sense when examined. But it makes a world of sense when it is carried out. The vastness of reality and an encounter with incomprehensible mystery all lead us to profound silence where we simply know something to be true. Have you trusted enough to allow your relationship with God to bring you to this place or are you still too skeptical?

"I will give you the keys to the kingdom of heaven. Whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven; and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven." Then he strictly ordered his disciples to tell no one that he was the Christ. - Mt 16:19-20
