*"He said, "Come." Peter got out of the boat and began to walk on the water toward Jesus."
(Matthew 14:29)*

When you hear Jesus calling, do you respond immediately and trust that He knows what He's doing? If so, you are walking on water! When we say "yes" to Jesus, we feel the power of His presence in our lives. We can feel the freedom it gives us! Listen to how Jesus is calling you to live the extraordinary life He has intended for you.*

Leader In Me ~ IHM School

Readers are Leaders

Reading, and understanding what you read, is a skill that everyone needs to be successful. The best way to improve understanding is to read a lot. There is nothing like a challenging book to lift you up or take you to another world. Developing a love of reading will be an asset to your child in all areas of school and give him/her a jumpstart to a lifetime of reading! Below is a list of books that your child will enjoy while also reinforcing the 7 Habits at home.

Lower elementary (K-3) Read the book together. Ask your child questions about how the characters used the habits. Upper elementary (4-6) Your child reads the book to you. Ask questions about how your child uses the habit.

Habits 1-7 The 7 Habits of Happy Kids by Sean Covey

Habit 1: Be Proactive

The Very Lonely Firefly by Eric Carle

The Carrot Seed by Ruth Krauss

Habit 2: Begin with the End in Mind

Click, Clack, Cows that Moo by Doreen Cronin

Pancakes, Pancakes by Eric Carle

Habit 3: Put First Things First

Froggy Gets Dressed by Jonathan London

Jamaica's Find by Juanita Havill

Habit 4: Think Win-Win

Let's Be Enemies by Janice May Udry

Habit 5: Seek First to Understand Then to Be Understood

The True Story of the Three Little Pigs by Jon Scieszka

Are You My Mother? by P.D. Eastman

Boulevard Place Food Pantry

Boulevard Place Food Pantry officially broke ground July 7th, 2020 with the attendance of Mayor Hogsett, the pantry president and director, the pantry board, the Butler Tarkington President, some large renovation donors, and was covered by 4 local News stations.

This exciting renovation will add 1500 square feet to the building on the backside of the property. Thus it will enable the pantry to increase waiting room size and shopping area. The pantry has seen consistent growth in patron visits since opening in 2012, from 600 families up to 1000 families a month. It has doubled the allowed visits per month and expanded the areas supported by the Churches.

This new space will allow the newly acquired van to back into the new food delivery entrance inside the building, so the volunteers can unload the food from the van from sources Gleaners protected from the weather. Additional renovations will include the office and kitchen areas, as well as improve and increase storage space. Blue Indy has donated some of its office furniture and 3 desk top computers.

In lieu of continued food needs for our neighborhood food pantry patrons and the successful drive through process, we will be kick starting a new summer food drive!

We will be hanging Blue bags with new food lists in the back of the church for pick up and delivery to the pantry!

Please fill the bags fully with the following mixes of these items:

- Spaghetti/ pasta noodles
- Sauces : Marinara or Alfredo
- Canned Tuna/Salmon/Chicken
- Canned beans any kind/corn
- Peanut butter main brands
- Rice mix packets
- Cornbread mix
- Crackers
- Cookies - 2 per bag
- Savory snacks- nuts/cheese
- Crackers any kind
- Chunky soups
- Beef stews/ chicken dumplings
- Prepackaged meals/ Dinty Moore

Outreach Corner

The Loss of the Middle Class – Part 3

Two books, one recent and one a few years ago, have highlighted the loss of the American middle class and what it has meant to American lives. One book is “Our Kids: The American Dream in Crisis” by Robert Putnam. The other book is “Tightrope” by Nicholas Kristof and Sheryl WuDunn. This is the third of four Outreach Corners on these books and the messages each has for American society.

In “Tightrope”, Kristof and WuDunn return to Kristof’s boyhood home near Yamhill, OR. The community was decidedly middle-class in the 60’s and 70’s, with most kids in stable two-parent homes with steady incomes. Neighbors all knew and cared for each other, and schools, churches and other community centers all supported the American dream of the middle 20th century.

But in the 21st century they found that many of Kristof’s classmates were in prison, living in severe poverty, or dead. Over the years the middle class in Yamhill had shrunk, with mills and factories closing, and substance abuse filling the void from the loss of hope and community. Public policy had failed to address their needs.

Yamhill is just a sample of loss across America: median wages for Americans lacking a college degree are lower in current dollars today than in 1979 according to the Bureau of Labor Statistics. Americans are among the most stressed people in the world, according to Gallop, tied with Iranians and more stressed than Venezuelans. Americans now lag peer countries in health care and high school graduation rates, while suffering more violence, poverty and addiction. Over 200,000 people die each year from addictions and suicide according to government statistics, a shockingly high number of so-called deaths of despair.

As Catholics we have guidance from Catholic Social Teaching (see www.usccb.org/beliefs-and-teachings) where six of the seven themes deal directly with the problems outlined above. We have an obligation to work to improve life in America for all of our brothers and sisters, and especially the needy. More details about ways to help will come in the next Outreach Corner.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

Be still and know that I am God. Silence is sacred. Silence speaks the language of the soul and is the foundation of all life and eternity itself. Silence takes us beyond the limits of our minds and allows us to seek and to love the essence of all love, perfect love, and being. In silence, we can be non-verbally present to things and to God in ways that words cannot accomplish. We can discover, encounter, and be present to truths that our minds struggle to conceive and then set aside the boxes we put around things when comprehending them is challenging. We can know the unknowable and touch eternity when we encounter the core silence in our souls.

We can do this even on a noisy street and in the midst of the greatest distraction. Once we have made friends with silence, the rambling noise of the world no longer seems to matter, and we can carry a deep forgiving peace within us, even when physical silence cannot be found. We know that we are loved, cared for, sustained, nourished, embraced, and carried. There is nothing to fear in silence, and I can be present to myself in the same way that God is present to me. I can see myself as God sees me. All of my faults, weaknesses, imperfections, failings, and sinfulness melt away in the abundance of God's mercy. All of the worldly things we see as being important no longer are.

It is in silence that all of the barriers that divide us disappear. There is no more "yours" and "mine" but only the oneness of "ours." There is no longer a need to "figure things out," and we tap into our desire to simply let things be. Silence is creative and powerful and gives us hope. Silence is God's greatest blessing.

God became one with humanity in silence. It allows us to be one with all of creation, with the moon and the stars and all of the creatures God has made. The smallest particle of creation radiates with beauty. Silence allows us to soar beyond ourselves and connect in ways that the mind can only imagine. When all is quiet, we begin to see that it is only our fear that keeps us from the Lord. It is our fear that causes us to sink and to fail. We can hear the gentle whisper that tells us to reach for God's hand. We discover that we yearn for the salvation and wholeness that only God can give to us. Be still my soul and be at peace.

"Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am meek and humble of heart; and you will find rest for yourselves. For my yoke is easy, and my burden light." - Mt 11:28-30
