“My God will supply whatever you need...” - Philippians 4:19

God really does provide for those who are grateful and generous. This is very difficult for people that don't live a stewardship lifestyle to believe. People are skeptical and say it's just coincidence. If you are skeptical, try living a stewardship lifestyle for just one month – be generous with your gifts of time in prayer, talent in charitable works and treasure and see how God provides for your needs.

Leader In Me ~ IHM School

Did you know the 7 Habits are connected to the Beatitudes? It's true! The Beatitudes match up with each of our 7 Habits. Over the coming weeks, we will look at each of the Habits, and the Beatitudes and Bible stories with which they align. We encourage you to look up and read these verses and think about how the Habits are used in them.

Habit 1: Be Proactive

Beatitude: Blessed are they who mourn, for they will be comforted
Bible Verses: Matthew 5:13-16 (You have a public responsibility)
Luke 10:29-37 (The Good Samaritan)

Habit 2: Begin with the End in Mind

Beatitude: Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven
Bible Verses: Matthew 6:25-34 (Let go and let God)
Luke 10:25-28 (The Greatest Commandment)

Habit 3: Put First Things First

Beatitude: Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled
Bible Verse: Ephesians 6:10-17 (Battle Against Evil)

Come Adore!

First Tuesday, November 3
6:30 am to 9:30 am IHM Church

Outreach Corner

The Church's View on Elections

We are called as Christians to help those in need. This includes both helping to provide the basics to those in urgent need, and also to work for systemic changes that will give those in need an improved chance to sustain themselves. The most fundamental way for us to work for systemic change is to vote. Election Day is Tuesday, November 3. Too many fellow Hoosiers do not bother to vote, yet the election outcomes affects all of us.

The U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops published an updated booklet in 2020 called "Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship: A Call to Political Responsibility". A few key points of that booklet are:

- Our approach to contemporary issues is first and foremost rooted in our identity as followers of Christ and as brothers and sisters to all who are made in God's image. For all Catholics, including those seeking public office, our participation in political parties or other groups to which we may belong should be influenced by our faith, not the other way around.
- The Church does not endorse individual political candidates. Rather, its message focuses on the principles of Catholic Social Teaching. As noted recently in this space, the principles are:
  1. The life and dignity of every human person
  2. A call to family, community and participation
  3. Both rights and responsibilities for all
  4. An option for the poor and vulnerable
  5. The dignity of work and the rights of workers
  6. Solidarity with all the human family
  7. Care for God's creation
- We are urged to understand each candidate's position on these issues and to prayerfully consider this information when we cast our vote.

The complete document is at <https://www.usccb.org/offices/justice-peace-human-development/forming-consciences-faithful-citizenship>.

Please vote on November 3!
