Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Jesus turned and saw them following him and said to them, 'What are you looking for?'"

-John 1:38

What are you looking for? Are you wasting your time looking for the material comforts of the world? Or, is your heart longing for something deeper that can only be found by spending time with God? Take time, each day, in silence and ask the Lord what it is that He wants you to do.*

The 7 Habits and Football by Carsten

Hi, my name is Carsten and we use the 7 Habits when playing football. The first one is think win-win, we can use this in football because we can all throw the football. Another habit we use is sharpening the saw, we use this because we practice making ourselves and our team better. That is how we use some of the 7 habits in football.

“The guest of our soul knows our misery; He comes to find an empty tent within us – that is all He asks.”

~St Therese of Lisieux

Dear Congregation,

Thank you so much for your donation of $700 from the Garden Ministry to Boulevard Place. This past season we enjoyed being the recipient of a large bounty of fresh produce from the IHM gardens. Plus, there were several donations to us direct from an apple orchard as funded and arranged by IHM. Our clients enjoy getting a variety of fresh produce to supplement the packaged dry goods we provide.

Thanks again for IHM's continued support of Boulevard Place.

Many Blessings,

Cynthia L. Brown, Director Boulevard Place Food Pantry

IHM Respect Life Committee

The Annual Birthline Collection of new and gently used baby items is sponsored by the IHM Respect Life Committee in remembrance of the 48th Anniversary of Roe v. Wade, January 22, 2021. The IHM annual collection is valuable to address Birthline's ongoing need for new and gently used baby clothes. This includes sleepers, onesies, zipper jackets, all children's clothing (up to 2T), maternity clothing, baby toys and board books. Please place baby items in the box or crib at the church entrance between January 10-31.

This year we are especially asking you to donate diapers as part of The Midwest Diaper Drive. It is being held in Midwest cities throughout January in hopes of collecting over 130,000 for local pregnancy resource centers in those cities. That number represents the number of babies aborted each year in the Midwest. They hope to collect over 10,000 diapers in Indianapolis.

In Indianapolis diapers are being collected at the Indiana March for Life on January 22 to be given locally to Birthline, Life Centers, and Women's Care Center. If you are coming to the March for Life, at noon on January 22, bring your diaper donation to St. John Church parking lot between 10am-2pm. You can also leave your diapers at the IHM entrances before January 22 and we will take them to the diaper drive.

Birthline, an outreach of the Archdiocese of Indianapolis, is so grateful to the generous IHM families who donate many gently used clothes and baby items throughout the year. Birthline and the two other local pregnancy resource centers will be so thankful for much needed diapers to help moms and babies in Central Indiana.

Contact Mary Dougherty, Respect Life Committee Chairperson for more information or for a pick-up of a large amount of clothing or large baby items at any time. (Birthline cannot accept cribs or car seats) mbdoughert@aol.com (317-790-6060).

St. Vincent de Paul Meeting

Then you will receive an invite from Zoom with the link and password. Download the Zoom app for Windows or Apple computer or Android or Apple smartphone to facilitate participation in the meeting.

Outreach Corner

Pope Francis Issues a Social Encyclical (Part 4)

Earlier in 2020 the Pope issued an encyclical Fratelli tutti that focuses on fraternity and social friendship as the ways to build a better, more just and peaceful world. Recently the Vatican News summarized this Encyclical. This is the fourth of five Outreach Corner articles about this Encyclical.

From the sixth chapter, Dialogue and Friendship in Society, further emerges the concept of life as the art of encounter with everyone, even with the world's peripheries and with original peoples, because each of us can learn something from others. No one is useless and no one is expendable. Then, of particular note, is the Pope's reference to the miracle of "kindness", an attitude to be recovered because it is a star "shining in the midst of darkness" and "frees us from the cruelty ... the anxiety ... the frantic flurry of activity" that prevail in the contemporary era.

The value and promotion of peace is reflected on in the seventh chapter, Paths of Renewed Encounter, in which the Pope underlines that peace is connected to truth, justice and mercy. Far from the desire for vengeance, it is proactive and aims at forming a society based on service to others and on the pursuit of reconciliation and mutual development. Thus, peace is an art that involves and regards everyone and in which each one must do his or her part in a never-ending task. Forgiveness is linked to peace: we must love everyone, without exception – the Encyclical reads – but loving an oppressor means helping him to change and not allowing him to continue oppressing his neighbor. Forgiveness does not mean impunity, but rather, justice and remembrance, because to forgive does not mean to forget, but to renounce the destructive power of evil and the desire for revenge. Never forget horrors like the Shoah, the atomic bombing of Hiroshima and Nagasaki, persecutions and ethnic massacres, exhorts the Pope. They must be remembered always, anew, so as not to become anaesthetized and to keep the flame of collective conscience alive. It is just as important to remember the good.

Next week we will take up the Collection for the Church in Latin America.
