"There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit; there are different forms of service but the same Lord; there are different workings but the same God who produces all of them in everyone."
- 1 CORINTHIANS 12:4-6

All of us are blessed, regardless of our own individual circumstances. God has given each of us many gifts. How we use those gifts is our gift back to God. For God's plan to work, each must do what we are called to do. Guess what? We are not all called to do the same thing! For God's plan to work you have to do what God is calling you to do and I have to do what God is calling me to do.

NOTE: May 30 through September 12 the 11:15 am Mass will not be offered.

This summer he will serve at Our Lady of Perpetual Help, New Albany before he returns to St. Meinrad for a final year of theology before he is ordained a priest for the Archdiocese of Indianapolis in June of 2022.

Deacon Perronie will preach the homily at Immaculate Heart of Mary at the 5:30pm Mass on May 29 and or 8:00am Mass on May 30. Please join us to welcome and congratulate him.

Leader In Me ~ IHM School

7 Habits at Home by Nick

The first habit we can use at home is to be proactive and try not to be distracted and work hard.

The second habit is begin with the end in mind and you can use this to keep going and never give up on your project.

The third habit is to put first things first, which means to do the more important things first and finish earlier.

The fourth habit is to think win-win and you can use this to make sure everyone wins in a situation.

The fifth habit seeks first to understand then to be understood, you can use this to help and understand the people around you.

The sixth habit is to synergize and to find a solution to help everyone around you at home.

The final and seventh habit is to sharpen the saw and to relax and unwind a bit everyday.

Outreach Corner

Caring for Creation

Pope Francis focuses on the connections that all people share with one another and the natural world in his encyclical, "Laudato Si': On Care for Our Common Home." Here is a selection of quotes from the encyclical that reflect that overall theme:

- "All of us can cooperate as instruments of God for the care of creation, each according to his or her own culture, experience, involvements and talents".
- "Because all creatures are connected, each must be cherished with love and respect, for all of us as living creatures are dependent on one another".
- "If the simple fact of being moves people to care for the environment of which they are a part, Christians in their turn realize that their responsibility within creation, and their duty toward nature and the Creator, are an essential part of their faith".
- "Our insistence that each human being is an image of God should not make us overlook the fact that each creature has its own purpose. None is superfluous. The entire material universe speaks of God's love, his boundless affection for us. Soil, water, mountains: everything is, as it were, a caress of God".
- "When we fail to acknowledge as part of reality the worth of a poor person, a human embryo, a person with disabilities—to offer just a few examples—it becomes difficult to hear the cry of nature itself; everything is connected".
- "The universe unfolds in God, who fills it completely. Hence, there is a mystical meaning to be found in a leaf, in a mountain trail, in a dewdrop, in a poor person's face. The ideal is not only to pass from the exterior to the interior to discover the action of God in the soul, but also to discover God in all things".

(Adapted from The Criterion for May 14, 2021; see local examples of caring for creation in the same issue.)

Gracious and loving God! We ask for your blessing to be upon our high school graduates as they and their families celebrate this grand milestone. We thank you for the success of their journey through life so far, and we pray that you lead them into the future with the comfort of our IHM family's continued embrace and support and your Word as a guide and compass. Amen.

LET'S TALK PARENTING...

YOU, YOUR SPOUSE AND GOD

Have you ever wondered if other parents have experienced what you are going through right now and if prayer truly helped them navigate the trials of parenthood? Do you yearn for peace within your home and among your family? God answers prayer with peace, yet many parents struggle with how to begin to ask; how to petition from a heart wide open.

Author and Immaculate Heart of Mary parishioner Beth Leonard will share stories from her new book, Praying Your Child Through Anything, Real Stories, Real Prayers, Real Peace, where she interviewed parents about their most intimate time with God regarding their children. We will peek into the lives of ordinary parents as they share their extraordinary stories of faith and reveal to us the many treasures found when we decide to parent through prayer.

This presentation is part of our Faith Firsts series. We will meet on June 1, at 7 pm, in the Church.

Compassion Camp is coming!

This year IHM's Vacation Bible School will be "Compassion Camp - Be Loved. Be Kind. Be You"! From June 21 to June 25 we will be gathering at IHM to learn about how God is compassionate with us and helps us to be compassionate with one another. More information on registration, volunteering, and content coming soon!

Faith Firsts

Sponsored by the Family Life and Faith Formation commission, IHM is proud to offer Faith Firsts, a series of faith related events that will happen on every first day of the month. Please check the bulletin and your e-blasts for individual invitations, since these events will happen on different days of the week and may be at different times. Expect a variety of topics and presentations that will help us as a community to grow together and grow in faith!

June: "Praying Your Child Through Anything" - Presentation by author Beth Leonard

July: "Why are we going to Mass anyway?" - Presentation by Ute Eble

August: Immaculate Heart of Mary Church Tour led by Pat Gibbons

September: "Mary's Treasures" - Dramatic Monologue by Sandra Hartlieb

Education of Future Priests Collection

The Collection for the Education of Future Archdiocesan Priests is scheduled for May 29-30, 2021. This collection helps cover the costs of education and formation of seminarians who are preparing for priesthood for the Archdiocese of Indianapolis. At this time, we are blessed with 21 men studying for the priesthood. The average cost per student for educational expenses is $40,000 per year. The United Catholic Appeal and proceeds from endowments also support formation for our seminarians, but those funds do not fulfill the entire need. Please be generous in supporting the needs of our future priests. Please pray for priests and seminarians and for a generous increase in vocations to priesthood and consecrated life. It is taken up with our regular collection, so please label your contributions. Thank you.

A Program for Couples in Struggling Marriages

Let Retrouvaille Help!

The Retrouvaille program is for couples with marriages that are struggling, not communicating well, and those who are considering marriage separation or divorce. It is also for those who are already separated or divorced that want marriage help. Some couples come to Retrouvaille during the initial signs of a marriage problem. Other couples are in a state of despair and hopelessness when they attend the program. Some couples have been married for many years, while others have been married only a short time and encountered trouble. For information about Retrouvaille weekends including one in Indianapolis, IN on August 13, 2021 visit: <https://www.helpourmarriage.org/>

Prayer to the Holy Spirit

The following prayer was recited by Pope Benedict XVI in a homily on November 7, 2006. This is a prayer to the Holy Spirit.

Let us invoke him
so that he will irrigate, warm and straighten,
so that he will pervade us
with the power of his sacred flame and renew the earth.

Let us pray for this with all our hearts
at this time, in these days.

Amen. *

*From the USCCB
