2

"Then he took a cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them and they all drank from it." - MARK 14:23

Jesus, the perfect steward, gave thanks, just before He gave Himself up for us, completely for our salvation. He offers us the same chance to drink from His cup. In the bread and wine, we meet Christ personally. If we follow Him, drinking from His cup means our own self-sacrifice, using all of our gifts for the benefit of others and to do His work on earth.

NOTE: May 30 through September 12 the 11:15 am Mass will not be offered.

Swimming During Covid by Carter

I really love swimming competitively, but as you may have guessed, that can be a little tricky during a global pandemic. Usually (in a non-COVID year), I try to make it to most of the practices that are offered every week, but now I try to make it to every practice because I don't have anything else going on. I use at least 3 of the 7 Habits in swimming because I:

Begin with the end in mind. I know that I will have to be ready to swim my best on the day of the meet. That is why I go to so many practices.

Put first things first. I know that keeping myself physically strong and morally straight is more important than video games and playing on devices. Especially because I stare at a screen almost all day anyways. Be proactive. I know that by keeping up with a very tough schedule I am making myself better mentally and physically and that will help me in life.

The Habits at Home by Trigg

The seven habits I used during quarantine were probably all of them. I was proactive during quarantine last school year because I would set my books out and wake up to shower. I used the begin with the end and mind by studying for my tests and not looking up answers. I would put first things first by making sure I had all my chores done before school started so I could have the afternoon for homework. I would think win win by trying my hardest to be attentive in class. I would seek first to understand then to be understood by asking questions if I didn't know the answers to ask for help. I would synergize by exercising everyday to keep myself healthy. I used sharpen the saw by making my parents coffee a lot to keep myself on their good side.

Catholic Conference on the Care of Our Common Home

Registration is now open for the July 13-15, 2021 virtual LSUS conference: "Laudato Si' and the U.S. Catholic Church: A Conference Series on Our Common Home."

The LSUS conference will open on July 13th with keynote addresses by His Eminence Blase Cardinal Cupich, Archbishop of Chicago, and Maureen Day, PhD, Assistant Professor of Religion and Society at the Franciscan School of Theology. Together, they will assess why the U.S. Catholic response to Laudato Si' has not been commensurate with the urgency and gravity of the climate crisis.

On July 14-15, the conference will continue, featuring interactive breakout sessions in eight areas of the U.S. Catholic Church working to more faithfully incorporate Laudato Si':

- Advocacy
- Colleges/Universities
- Communications/Media
- Creation Care Teams (especially at parishes and dioceses)
- Environmental Justice
- Homiletics
- Parochial School Education
- Youth & Young Adults

Each ministry leadership team will share the strategies, plans, and resources being developed with members of their working group. Presentations will be followed by discussion with conference participants.

The conference will conclude July 15 with a closing address by Sister Ilia Delio, OSF, PhD, Josephine C. Connelly Endowed Chair in Theology at Villanova University. Sister Delio will consider Catholic spiritual and theological insights that can enliven a more faithful commitment to care for our common home.

See full conference schedule here.

The conference is free, but registration is required, and a freewill donation is encouraged to offset costs that include Spanish language interpretation. REGISTER FOR CONFERENCE HERE.
