“Go, eat rich foods and drink sweet drinks, and allot portions to those who had nothing prepared...” (NEHEMIAH 8:10)

Ezra's instructions to the people show us that God does not forbid us from enjoying the good things in life. He wants us to be happy! However, God expects us to be grateful for all that He has given us and to generously share our blessings with those who are in need. Now here's the hard part – to share all we have without expecting anything in return.

IHM School - Leader In Me

The Habits by Henry

I like to put first things first and for school and life. This helps me so that when I have free time to do my homework when I'm finished I can play sports, play video games and hangout with my friends. It also helps me so I don't stay up doing homework right after coming back from sports. At school I also do it in free time like right before lunch I do any homework I have or I'll try to make the work less questions for when I get back to my house.

The Habits and Friendship by Grace

You can use the 7 habits for lots of things and you might not even know it. I like to use the 7 habits in my friendships. Habit #4 (Think win-win) is a great habit to use in friendships. In friendships, you have to compromise with your friends. For example, maybe you and your friend want to play different games. You will have to compromise and listen. Speaking of listening, that's another good habit to use. Habit #5 (Seek first to understand, then to be understood). In friendships you will also have to look at your friend's point of view. Listening to them helps you understand them better. You can use lots of the habits in friendships but these two help a lot. Try using them and I guarantee it will help.

Special Collection - Church in Latin America

On January 22 & 23 we will take up the Collection for the Church in Latin America. Many people in Latin America and the Caribbean do not have access to Church programs and ministries because of a rising secular culture, difficult rural terrain, and a shortage of ministers. Your generosity makes it possible for our brothers and sisters in Latin America and the Caribbean to share in the life of the Church and grow closer to Christ. Please be generous to the special collection. It is taken up with our regular collection, so please label your donations. To learn more, please visit www.usccb.org/latin-america.
