“...He went about doing good and healing all those oppressed by the devil, for God was with him.” (ACTS 10:38)

We can't give what we don't have. Open your heart to receive God's love, mercy and forgiveness. Then, show the same to others. As God's adopted sons and daughters, we are made in His image and likeness. As Pope Benedict XVI says, “we are made for greatness.” Let our lives reflect His light to others. Pray to live a grateful and generous life. Strive for greatness! We are made for more! We are made for God!

The Parish Office will close at noon on Good Friday and re-open Tuesday, April 19.

New Marketing Committee Volunteer Opportunity!

Parish Council & School Commission are working together to form a new Marketing Committee that will work on both parish & school needs to increase our visibility in the community.

We are in need of a leader for this new committee. We are open to ideas of how to get the message out about how great IHM is!! Maybe that leader is you!

Please contact Amy Martin: amy.es.martin@gmail.com or John Borgo borgojohn@hotmail.com if you are interested!

LECTORS: GET LOUD! BREATHE RIGHT. BE SAVVY.

With his extensive experience teaching college students speech and acting techniques, parishioner Bob Zyromski will lead lectors through a three-part training regimen.

Topics explore interpretation (how a passage is organized) and delivery techniques (breath control, articulation, projection, pace, pauses and more). In some cases, lectors will have a chance to practice their new skills for the group.

Sessions are three consecutive Thursdays, May 19, 26 and June 2 from 7:00 to 8:30 pm in the church. These sessions are for new and experienced lectors. Attendees: contact Sr. Catherine at cduenne@ihmindy.org or 317-257-2266 to confirm your presence.

Church Tidy Up Coordinator & Volunteers Needed

Looking for a way to serve God? We are looking for someone to coordinate the people who tidy up our church on Fridays. We are also looking for volunteers to tidy up, such as straightening the books and replenishing the holy water fonts.

If you can help in either capacity, please call the parish office at 317-257-2266 or email jvhaley@ihmindy.org.

Food Pantry Drive - Thank you

We are immensely grateful to Immaculate Heart of Mary parishioners for already donating more 2000 pounds of varied and seasonal themed foods as well as Easter treats in only the first two weeks of our IHM Lent Easter food drive! We are fully expecting that by the time this food drive ends we will have collected over 3000 pounds of food.

Thank you IHM parishioners, and SVDP Boulevard Place Food Pantry volunteers, for your generosity and heartfelt enthusiasm for supporting these food drives!

Mass Intentions

Remember your loved ones with Mass Intentions. To have a Mass offered for someone, living or deceased, please contact the parish office. Suggested Mass offering is $10.

Faith First presents
Stations of the Resurrection
Sunday, May 1 @ 4:00 pm

What are they?

- These are 14 Stations that follow the life of Jesus from the Resurrection to Pentecost
- They are also known as Via Lucis or Stations of Light
- They are prayed in the same fashion as the Stations of the Cross

Why have I never heard of them?

- They are based on Scripture, but were only compiled in the 1980s by an Italian priest.
- They were promoted by Pope John Paul II in 2000 during the Year of Jubilee.

Why pray them?

- They focus on light and hope
- It is a prayerful way of journeying with Jesus from his Resurrection to Pentecost
- Our Salvation story does not end with the cross; by Jesus' cross and the Resurrection, we are redeemed

Thank you!

Thank you to all parishioners who contributed potato pouches or money to the Easter Basket collection! We collected 387 potato pouches from the parish and 851 potato pouches from the school as well as enough money to provide a total of 2,000 potato pouches for the North Deanery Easter Basket project. Your generosity brought a happy Easter to more than 1,000 families!

Celebrate the Easter Season!

Lent is long and when we are in the middle of our Lenten sacrifices it can even seem to go on forever. However, the Easter season is even longer, and we get to celebrate the resurrection of Jesus and our salvation joyfully for a whole 50 days! Even longer, because Pope John Paul II reminded us: "We are the Easter people and Alleluia is our song!" We should celebrate so joyfully and so intentionally that other people notice!

So, how can we keep celebrating?

- The Easter Octave is the 8 days from Easter Sunday to Divine Mercy Sunday. Each of these 8 days is celebrated like a Sunday or solemnity in the Church. So, no Friday sacrifice is required the Friday after Easter (hence the name Meat Friday), and Sunday treats are basically mandatory during this week!
- Leave out the Easter decorations until Pentecost (the end of the Easter season). If you ran out of time before Easter to do crafts or bake special treats, now is the time!
- Keep wishing each other "Happy Easter" and sing Alleluia! We buried the word "Alleluia" during Easter, so now it is time to sing all the Alleluia songs!
- Study the Word of God!

Easter Season Bible Study

Bible Study # 6 weeks # Wednesdays, 10 am # Starting April 27 # Book of James

The book of James insists that conversion to Christ changes the way we act. In James: Put Your Faith to Work, we learn how to apply Jesus' teachings to our lives as members of God's kingdom. Ultimately, we come to understand the book of James as our roadmap for the Christian journey.

Join us starting on Wednesday, April 27, for a 90-minute Bible study in the Conference Room of the Welcome Center (parish office). Books will be provided!

Catholic Home Missions Appeal 4/23 & 24

Next week we will take up the Catholic Home Missions Appeal. Today, nearly 40% of dioceses in the United States and its territories are unable to fund the essential pastoral work their communities need. Your support of this appeal helps them meet these faith formation and sacramental needs. Please prayerfully consider how you can support this appeal. It will be taken up with our regular collection, please label your donations. More information can be found at www.usccb.org/home-missions.

Gospel Meditation for Easter

April 17, 2022

Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of the Lord

There are many stones in our paths that keep us from truly living and being free. Some of these boulders have been there for a very long time. They have been there so long that they have even settled into the soil of our lives with other weeds, vines, and compacted soil keeping them firmly in place. We find them hard to move and trying to do so can be exhausting. What are these suffocating albatrosses that keep us so tethered and immobile? They are many things.

They are past childhood wounds and hurts that stem from disappointment, rejection, or abuse. People may have told us we were unwanted, that the world is frightening, that there are only some acceptable feelings you can have and others you cannot. We may have tried to love someone or struggled to figure out how and were met with rejection. Maybe we trusted someone completely and were betrayed. We come to life collecting barnacles that begin to attach to other barnacles and before you know it, we have a mass of solid matter blocking our vision and keeping us from moving. We live in fear. We are afraid of losing what we have, afraid that the future will be empty, afraid that we won't succeed and even more afraid that we will not be loved. There is so much fear. Didn't Jesus tell us not to worry and to not be afraid? Either we believe in the message of Easter, or we don't!

Go confidently into the night. Walking with God you will find the light and strength you need. Often without even knowing, God will move those boulders and stumbling blocks that bind us and, with putting one foot in front of the other and looking forward, we will move. The resurrection of Christ is really all about receiving the gifts of trust and faith and doing new things. The rocks that bind us keep us spinning the same wheels and doing the same things. When was the last time you threw caution to the wind and actually did something totally out of character and different? This is where we find God, in the spontaneous, the adventurous, the fun, and the creative choices we make! God is not boring and stuck. God is exciting and engaging. Jesus Christ is risen from the dead! Find a way to trust that this is true and live.
