“Jesus said to them again, ‘Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you.’” (JOHN 20:21)

Peace – the first gift of the risen Lord. Just as Jesus sent the apostles out into the world, so too, He sends us. As disciples of Jesus, we are called to be compassionate and merciful; and not with just those who are our friends, but also with our “enemies.” Think of someone in your life who you need to reconcile with. Call them right now or better yet, go visit them.

New Marketing Committee Volunteer Opportunity!

Parish Council & School Commission are working together to form a new Marketing Committee that will work on both parish & school needs to increase our visibility in the community.

We are in need of a leader for this new committee. We are open to ideas of how to get the message out about how great IHM is!! Maybe that leader is you!

Please contact Amy Martin: amy.es.martin@gmail.com or John Borgo borgojohn@hotmail.com if you are interested!

LECTORS: GET LOUD! BREATHE RIGHT. BE SAVVY.

With his extensive experience teaching college students speech and acting techniques, parishioner Bob Zyromski will lead lectors through a three-part training regimen.

Topics explore interpretation (how a passage is organized) and delivery techniques (breath control, articulation, projection, pace, pauses and more). In some cases, lectors will have a chance to practice their new skills for the group.

Sessions are three consecutive Thursdays, May 19, 26 and June 2 from 7:00 to 8:30 pm in the church. These sessions are for new and experienced lectors. Attendees: contact Sr. Catherine at cduenne@ihmindy.org or 317-257-2266 to confirm your presence.

Faith First presents
Stations of the Resurrection
Sunday, May 1 @ 4:00 pm

What are they?

- These are 14 Stations that follow the life of Jesus from the Resurrection to Pentecost
- They are also known as Via Lucis or Stations of Light
- They are prayed in the same fashion as the Stations of the Cross

Why have I never heard of them?

- They are based on Scripture, but were only compiled in the 1980s by an Italian priest.
- They were promoted by Pope John Paul II in 2000 during the Year of Jubilee.

Why pray them?

- They focus on light and hope
- It is a prayerful way of journeying with Jesus from his Resurrection to Pentecost
- Our Salvation story does not end with the cross; by Jesus' cross and the Resurrection, we are redeemed

IHM School - Leader In MeThe Habits and Baseball by Cooper

You can use the habit think win-win in baseball. Each person on a baseball team has a special role and if you do your role correctly everything goes right. If you don't do your job correctly the whole entire team will fail. Another example is batting. If you hit the ball far you get on base then your teammates will hit the ball and you will get home and get a point. If you don't hit the ball far, get out, or strike out then you will fail to get a point

The Habits at School by Elizabeth

We have now been at school for a while and have started to get into the groove of things. Now that we're back in school it is important we use the 7 habits. The first 3 are proactive, begin with the end in mind, and Put first things first. These 3 go hand and hand. For example, when you're doing your homework you can be proactive, put first things first, and begin with the end in mind by making sure you get it done right when you get home so your future self won't have to worry about it. The habits are to think win-win and synergize. You can use these during sports when you feel like you shouldn't even try and your team couldn't be let down any more. You have to remind yourself to be a team player, what you contribute to will help your team, and the most important thing is to work as a team. The next habit is seek first to understand then to be understood. This habit can be used online whether you facetime your friend or are on a zoom meeting for school. You have to listen to your teacher or friend and understand what they say, and then it will be your turn to say something while they listen. The last but definitely not least is ... (drum roll please) sharpen the saw. This is a habit about taking care of your future self. You can use this habit while at home trying to decide whether you should either go to bed on time or stay up late before a big test. Even if you don't realize it, we use these habits in our everyday life as we continue to grow in our faith.
