"I am the Alpha and the Omega, the first and the last, the beginning and the end." (REVELATIONS 22:13)

This is a reminder of how we should live our lives 24 hours a day, 7 days a week – putting God first in all that we do. Not only when I am at Mass and parish activities, but when I am in the world, at work or at school. Living gratefully and generously is an intentional life-style. Every decision you make either moves you closer to God or farther away. Choose wisely!

Wear Red on Pentecost - June 4 & 5

Pentecost, known as the birthday of the Christian church, is celebrated 50 days after Easter. It concludes the Easter season. On this day, priests wear red to represent the fire of the Holy Spirit. It is customary in many churches for the people to wear red as well. Let us wear red and celebrate the working of the Holy Spirit.

IHM School - Leader In Me

The Habits Anytime, Anywhere by Sophia

I think we can use many habits at home, like habit number one: be proactive. We can use this habit at home by doing chores instead of playing video games. We can use habit number 2: begin with the end in mind. If we are texting someone we can think of what we're going to say and how it will make the person we're texting feel. Overall you can use all the habits anywhere you go any time.

The Habits and Basketball by Henry

You can use the 7 habits in a lot of different ways in basketball you can use think win-win. If you and your teammates work together and do your jobs you can score. You have to memorize your plays so that you know what you need to do to win, because if one person messes up the whole play is ruined. You need to play defense and stop the other team from scoring. If you do all those things right you can win games.

8:00 am Outdoor Mass

The 8:00 am Outdoor Mass will begin on June 19, 2022 in the IHM parking lot. Please bring a chair if attending.

If there is inclement weather, Mass will take place in the church.

Giving Envelopes

Are you giving online and throwing away your monthly envelopes? If you would like to stop your giving envelopes please call the parish office, 317-257-2266, and we will take care of it for you

Gospel Meditation

May 29, 2022

The Ascension of the Lord

We have the ability to walk with joyful hope! Jesus, during his earthly ministry, pointed the way to God's kingdom. What is finally understood about God's kingdom is that it is filled with the glory of Christ! We are all in the process of being emptied into and becoming one with Christ. We are new creations, clothed in Christ, made in God's very image and likeness, and on this incredible journey of glory. The Ascension allows us to see this truth about ourselves and it enlightens our hearts. Christ who was most perfectly, vividly, and brilliantly transfigured before the very eyes of the disciples will be our destiny. Seeing only imperfectly now, we will see perfectly then. We will bask in the brilliance of understanding and truth. Christ is our destiny and our hope. Alleluia!

Believing this with our whole heart allows us to walk proudly through life's darkness. There is so much that can upset us and weigh us down. Sometimes, life's news can not only be challenging but downright discouraging. Our own lives can easily become unsettled and empty. We rely too much on the things of this world to please us and wonder how we lost our excitement, enthusiasm, wonder, and joy. Getting so caught up in superficialities and unnecessary dependencies, we lose our axis, anchor, and center. Today, we can claim it back again! We are reminded that it is not here that we find fulfillment but in the world of Christ yet to come. Jesus sent this promise of his Father upon his disciples, and he sends it to us as well.

Faith in God really has power to change things. In essence, all we have to do is believe in what God promises. God is ever close to us. He can even use what we see as the "useless scraps of life" to create "God moments" of inspiration and invitation. Then, even what is perceived as unpleasant, distasteful, or even hurtful can be transformed into an experience of joy. The Ascension of Christ becomes our reference point for self-knowledge. This firm anchor allows us to work through whatever comes our way and never be robbed of joy!

IHM Community Garden: Volunteers Needed

Please consider supporting the IHM Community Garden this summer by volunteering to help with the upkeep of the garden. We grow a variety of vegetables and all of our produce is given to Boulevard Place Food Pantry. Each year, we're able to donate many hundreds of pounds of vegetables.

All ages are welcome and no gardening experience is needed! Teams generally meet once a month on Saturday mornings throughout the summer but there are also opportunities to help during the week with watering and weeding.

Please reach out to Grace McManus at grace.c.mcmanus@gmail.com if you'd like to be involved or if you have any questions!

God of power and mercy,
you destroy war and put down earthly pride.
Banish violence from our midst and wipe away
our tears,

Keep in your mercy those men and women who have died in the cause of freedom and bring them safely into your kingdom of justice and peace.
We ask this though Jesus Christ our Lord.

Recognizing God in Your Everyday Moments

God's Game of Telephone

You've probably played the game of "pass it on" before, maybe years ago on the playground. It's a simple concept: one person whispers something in another person's ear, and it gets repeated person by person throughout the group, until finally the last one to hear the message has to say it out loud. Whatever ends up being said at the end of the game is usually a far cry from the original statement, and everyone has a good laugh.

As individuals, we don't receive news in the same way. Our personalities, our histories, our weaknesses, and our strengths determine how we interact with information we encounter in the world, both good and bad. One person will interpret a compliment positively; someone else will take offense. One person reacts to news of a job promotion with joy, another is disappointed that now they will have less time with their family. The same news can mean completely different things to different people.

But what God gives us is the truth in love, and the truth in love is the same in every place and in every time, for every person of every race. When Christ prayed to the Father that "the love with which you loved me may be in them," he was asking that the magnificent gift that had been imparted to him would also be imparted to us.

Our job is to play a game of pass it on with this gift of love. How do we keep it from becoming warped? Through remaining committed to the word of God, to the sacraments, and to one another.

In this game, we don't change the message. The message changes us. And we have to give it away to keep it.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

Easter Season Bible Study

Bible Study # 6 weeks # Wednesdays, 10 am # Starting April 27 # Book of James

The book of James insists that conversion to Christ changes the way we act. In James: Put Your Faith to Work, we learn how to apply Jesus' teachings to our lives as members of God's kingdom. Ultimately, we come to understand the book of James as our roadmap for the Christian journey.

Join us starting on Wednesday, April 27, for a 90-minute Bible study in the Conference Room of the Welcome Center (parish office). Books will be provided!

Faith Firsts: June

Come celebrate the Church's birthday with us a few days early, on Wednesday, June 1, 11:30 am in the Gathering Space. The following Sunday is Pentecost, traditionally celebrated as the birthday of the Church, because it was the moment the Holy Spirit descended on the Apostles, enabling them to go out into the world and preach the Gospel. We'll be having cake, sing Happy Birthday, and share our favorite Church-related memories!

Godparents Day: June 5

Godparents play an important role in the upbringing of a Catholic child. Parents select godparents for their child so that they can help them raise them in the faith. The duties of a godparent are mostly to model an authentic faith and serve as a guide on the child's faith journey.

On the weekend of June 5 we will honor and bless IHM's godparents with a special blessing at all weekend Masses. Invite your godchild or your godparent to attend Mass with you and receive a prayer card for both of you!

In the meantime, here are a few things you can do as a godparent to keep this special relationship alive:

- Remember your godchild's sacramental anniversaries. Send them a card or call them to show that they are important!
- Build them a spiritual library by gifting them or passing along good faith related books.
- Be a spiritual mentor. Every person needs someone besides their parents to discuss their faith and take seriously the things of God.
- Take them to Mass, if you live close enough

Special Collection on June 4 & 5

Education of Future Archdiocesan Priests

On June 4 & 5 we will have our annual collection in support of our seminarians currently studying for future ministry in the Church. This collection helps cover the expenses involved in the education and formation of our future priests. At this point we are blessed with 25 men studying for the priesthood: ten at Bishop Brute Seminary and thirteen at Saint Meinrad School of Theology. We hope to add 4 to 6 men this year. The average cost per student for educational expenses is $40,000 per year. The United Catholic Appeal and proceeds from endowments also support formation for our seminarians, but those funds do not fulfill the entire need. All donations to this collection will go directly toward the payment of these expenses. Please support the educational needs of our future priests, and please pray for a generous increase in vocations to priesthood and consecrated life. Thank you. For the Archbishop's entire letter visit: <https://www.archindy.org/mission/collections.html>
