The Mission of Immaculate Heart of Mary

The Immaculate Heart of Mary parish strives to be a vibrant Catholic community with the Gospel of Jesus Christ as our guide. We invite all to strengthen their spirituality and develop their relationship with God through dynamic liturgy, life-long learning, and sharing faith within and outside our community.

*"Ask and you will receive; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you."

Luke 11:9

Jesus assures us that if we ask, God will take care of what we need. The problem is that our culture often confuses what we really need with what we simply want. The truth is that many of us need very little. However, we usually want so much more! Stewardship is simply being grateful for all that we are and all that we have been given, and generously sharing all of our God-given gifts with others. Generosity is a gift that opens doors to new relationships with others and with God.

Volunteer Ministry

The Pastoral Council of IHM has initiated a program to recognize the work that so many volunteers do to make our parish a community. Profiles of these volunteers will be published regularly in the parish bulletin. Our next honorees are JOYCE AND BOB BUENING.

Bob and Joyce have been members of IHM for 42 years. Their four children, Andrea, Tina, Jamie, and Josh attended IHM school. Tina and Mike Kask and their children Keira and Matthew are IHM parishioners.

Joyce and Bob have served as Eucharist Ministers, Bob as a Coordinator, Joyce singing at the 8 o'clock masses. They organized the outdoor Masses and provided setup information and training for other volunteers.

Bob built furniture for the preschool religious education program.

Joyce facilitated the monthly JOY Club (Just Older Youth) luncheons and arranged for speakers for the luncheons.

Joyce and Bob organized a bus trip to the Shrine of Christ's Passion in St. John Indiana for the JOY Club members.

They planned a recycle day at IHM with the help of The Recycle Force company.

This company hires, trains, and provides support for ex-offenders.

They have particularly enjoyed bringing the elder parishioners together, providing companionship, and a pleasant afternoon.

They like the challenge of organizing the items needed for the outdoor mass for the people and children who come to pray in the beautiful outdoors together.

Joyce and Bob believe that volunteering has enabled them to give back a little to the parish for all the blessings they have received.

THANK YOU BOB AND JOYCE!!

Gospel Meditation

July 24, 2022

17th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Meister Eckhart asks, "Who is the man whose prayers God always hears?" He answers, "God hears the man who appeals to God as God. When, however, man appeals to God, hoping for some worldly good, he is not appealing to God at all, but to what he is asking of God. He is trying to make God his servant. On this point, St. Augustine says: 'You pray to what you love, for true whole prayer is nothing but love!' Thus, we pray to what we love, and no one rightly prays to God but he who prays for God and has nothing on his mind but God." We struggle with what we want God to do and how we want our prayer validated. Meister Eckhart is correct. We often want God to be our servant. We further struggle with trusting that God knows what we need and that His will is best.

God's will is not some predetermined outcome of events that we must simply suggest. "Thy will be done" is not an invocation beckoning us to accept a particular state of affairs passively. Rather, it is the humble and confident placement of ourselves in the presence of the God we seek, whom we call "Father." We must remember that God is the God of life and light. It is from nothing that God brings something and from the darkness that God brings life. Prayer allows us to seek the One we love with the assurance that all will be well regardless of what course the events of our lives take. God is not about passive submission but the humble trust of love.

That's what makes the Lord's Prayer the perfect prayer. It provides us with proper disposition and focus, putting in line all of the essential relationships of our lives. It celebrates and fosters the ever-deepening relationship of trust we have with our Creator. It also calls us to keep open the doors of love between our brothers and sisters with the power that comes with forgiveness. If in one's darkest hour they can find the resolve to fervently pray this perfect prayer of Jesus' conviction, then there is no doubt that God will hear their plea, reach out in love, and bring them ever closer to His heart. What more does one need to weather the storms of life besides faith, hope, and love? These are God's most perfect gifts and all we really need.

World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly

Pope Francis instituted the world day for grandparents and the elderly as a response to the isolation that was felt worldwide by those in quarantine during the pandemic. Now it also serves to renew our focus on the gift of grandparents in our society and the pivotal role that they continue to play in family life and parish life. This year's theme is from Psalm 92: "In old age they will still bear fruit" While some may not be biological grandparents, the Church recognizes the experience, prayers, and particular needs of all those who play a role in passing on the wisdom of their years to the next generations.

We are called to action by offering prayers and blessings for grandparents and the elderly this weekend and on July 26, the feast day of St. Ann and St. Joachim, who are per Catholic tradition the parents of Mary and grandparents of Jesus.

Ideas for this weekend:

Attend Mass with your grandparents

- Take an elderly neighbor to Church
- Bless an elderly mentor with a phone call
- Visit a resident of a nursing home
- Pray for grandparents and the elderly!

Blessed be God, who is faithful through all generations!

Good and merciful God, we thank you for our grandparents and the elderly in our parish. We thank you for the gifts of wisdom, experience, and love they bring us and that they share with us their life of faith. May we constantly strive to learn from them, assist them, when they need us, and always show patience and kindness toward them. Heavenly Father, bless them with happiness and good health. We ask all of this through Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Mission Appeal

Thank you for your welcome and support of Archdiocese of Indianapolis lay missionary, Sherry Meyer, a Comboni missionary Fr. Tonino Pasolini last weekend. They extended their heartfelt gratitude. There is still time to make a donation to their ministry in Arua Diocese, Uganda. Make checks payable to Immaculate Heart of Mary Parish and mark them for “Sherry Meyer” Drop them in the collection basket or bring them to the parish office. Sherry sends out a newsletter three times a year; if you want to receive it, send your postal address or email address to her. Sherry sends out a newsletter there times a year; if you want to receive it, send your postal address or email address to her.. Sherry’s email address is sherry.m.arua@gmail.com and her postal address is P.O> Box 454, Arua, Uganda.

Archbishop Thompson to address Catholic Business Exchange

The Most Reverend Charles C. Thompson, Archbishop of Indianapolis, will speak at the August Catholic Business Exchange.

Bishop Thompson was appointed Archbishop by Pope Francis in June of 2017. He is the oldest of three children and is originally from Louisville Kentucky. Prior to his appointment, he served as Vicar General of Louisville until June 2011 and, subsequently, as Bishop of Evansville.

He currently serves in a variety of roles with the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, including being a member of the National Eucharistic Revival Bishops Advisory Group, the Committee on Cultural Diversity in the Church, and the Subcommittee for the Promotion and Defense of Marriage.

The event is Friday, August 19, at the Northside Events and Social Club. Mass is offered at 7am and the program will be finished by 9am. Cost for the program includes a great breakfast and is $18 in advance for members and $24 for non-members. Registration is required by 4pm, Tuesday August 16. To register, pay online and for more information, visit www.catholicbusinessexchange.org.
