"Take care to guard against all greed, for though one may be rich, one's life does not consist of possessions." Luke 12:15

The Gospel message is contrary to modern culture that continually tries to convince us that our joy comes from the material things we possess. That the more we acquire, the happier we will be. Jesus shows us that our true joy comes from our "invisible" gifts like love, mercy and forgiveness. True joy comes from "emptying" ourselves, giving of ourselves rather than always taking. We are called not to hoard but to share. True joy comes from living a grateful and generous lifestyle; become more "God-centered" and less "self-centered." *

Volunteer Ministry

The Pastoral Council of IHM has initiated a program to recognize the work that so many volunteers do to make our parish a community. Profiles of these volunteers will be published regularly in the parish bulletin. Our next honorees are JOYCE AND BOB BUENING.

Bob and Joyce have been members of IHM for 42 years. Their four children, Andrea, Tina, Jamie, and Josh attended IHM school. Tina and Mike Kask and their children Keira and Matthew are IHM parishioners.

Joyce and Bob have served as Eucharist Ministers, Bob as a Coordinator, Joyce singing at the 8 o'clock masses. They organized the outdoor Masses and provided setup information and training for other volunteers.

Bob built furniture for the preschool religious education program.

Joyce facilitated the monthly JOY Club (Just Older Youth) luncheons and arranged for speakers for the luncheons.

Joyce and Bob organized a bus trip to the Shrine of Christ's Passion in St. John Indiana for the JOY Club members.

They planned a recycle day at IHM with the help of The Recycle Force company.

This company hires, trains, and provides support for ex-offenders.

They have particularly enjoyed bringing the elder parishioners together, providing companionship, and a pleasant afternoon.

They like the challenge of organizing the items needed for the outdoor mass for the people and children who come to pray in the beautiful outdoors together.

Joyce and Bob believe that volunteering has enabled them to give back a little to the parish for all the blessings they have received.

THANK YOU BOB AND JOYCE!!

Gospel Meditation

July 31, 2022

18th Sunday in Ordinary Time

What makes us feel secure? Many people look to tangible forms of security that will safeguard their livelihood and prepare for their future. We tend to associate security with things: the accumulation of goods and possessions, retirement funds, savings accounts, and substantial incomes. While acquiring these promises a life with less anxiety and worry, we actually find ourselves more preoccupied and consumed with their growth and preservation. We worry more! We can easily become quasi-hoarders, consumed with obtaining more tangible crutches. Our minds and hearts are always restless, and we never seem to be at peace.

Why do we so easily give our self-worth, value, and sense of security over to things? God certainly does not deny us the pursuit of a productive and enjoyable life but where do we draw the line? A sense of well-being and happiness can easily get deferred to sometime “in the future” while we continue to wrestle with the toils of today. There is no guarantee that there will be an earthly tomorrow and all of the frenzy we bring to securing our state in life will be for naught. When we are called from this world, will we even know where to begin to look for the tranquility and repose our souls so desperately need?

We cannot be hoarders, pursuers of vanity, or greedy. They just don't work as they are too dependent on things that can fall apart. Rather than always feeling the need for more, we need to learn how to be grateful for what we have. By learning to look inward we can learn how to live lives of faithful service to others. “Happiness can only be achieved by looking inward and learning to enjoy whatever life has, and this requires transforming greed into gratitude (St. John Chrysostom).” We all need to be good stewards of what has been entrusted to our care. Grateful hearts recognize the true source of what we have and realize that our true treasure lies not in what matters to us but to God.
