"My child, remember that you received what was good during your lifetime while Lazarus likewise received what was bad; but now he is comforted here, whereas you are tormented. Moreover, between us and you a great chasm is established..." Luke 16:25-26

When God created the world, He declared that it was good, and He gave it to all mankind for us to enjoy. However, over the years we have created a chasm between those who have great gifts and those who do not. In today's Gospel we see that with our own generosity we must bridge that gap between those who have much and those who have little, or we may find ourselves on the wrong side of the chasm in the next life.

The Pastoral Council of IHM has initiated a program to recognize the work that so many volunteers do to make our parish a community. Profiles of these volunteers will be published regularly in the parish bulletin. Our next awardee is a familiar face around IHM, ELLEN HEALEY. Ellen describes her long history with the parish, in her own words:

In 1948, my parents, Charles and Eleanor Wagner, were founding members of IHM. Except for education years, I have been here ever since. Families of my sister Ann Ely, brother Charlie Wagner, and daughter Ellen Miller are past IHMers. Daughter Louise Henderson is a member today. Through the years, I have served in almost every area of parish life, except for liturgy planning, athletics, and fund raising. Adult Faith Formation has been close to my heart. I cherish time spent on Strategic Planning and in ever-recurring committees searching for more space. A favorite memory is the transferring of the fledging school library from the basement to the second floor, single handedly with my children – with the help of grocery sacks and little red wagons. It took all summer. My last term on the Parish Council ended in May 2020. Managing the 77-member Prayer Chain is a rewarding occupation for a retiree. Volunteering in the IHM Community has deepened my faith and enriched my life.

THANK YOU, ELLEN!

Boulevard Place Food Pantry - Donations Needed

Calling on ALL IHM parishioners to grab a bag off our stands, or use your own, to donate food to the Boulevard Place Food Pantry. They need our help to quickly replenish their emptying shelves.

Your food will help restock the shelves, due to the very high demand placed on food supplies from recent increased patron numbers and increases hours to mitigate the crowding, while the pantry gets the food supplies adjusted. Thank you as always for your incredible generosity!

Best Items: canned meats (chicken, tuna, salmon) ramen noodles, pasta (any) and spaghetti sauce, peanut butter and jelly, cereal, pancake mix, syrup, oils, cooking spray, pre-made meals (Ravioli, Dinty Moore, canned meat chili, applesauce or fruit cups. As always—any grocery deal on other items is fine also.

Are you thinking about becoming Catholic?

Do you want to learn more about the Catholic faith? Do you find the Mass and our Catholic community attractive and want to join? The Catholic Church has a program designed for adults who wish to explore the faith and possibly receive the sacraments of initiation where those interested go through a period of asking questions about the faith and learning what it means to be a disciple before preparing for the sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation and/or Eucharist.

If you would like to still join, please come on Monday, September 26, at 7 pm in the parish conference room. For questions, our planned calendar, or to let us know that you are coming, please contact Ute Eble at ueble@ihmindy.org.

Mass Intentions

Remember your loved ones with Mass Intentions. To have a Mass offered for someone, living or deceased, please contact the parish office. Mass offering is $10.

First Communion preparation happens in second grade. Please sign your child up using the same link. If you have any questions, reach out to Ute Eble at ueble@ihmindy.org

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

September 25, 2022 - 26th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“If they will not listen to Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded if someone should rise from the dead.” Regardless of how the message of faith is received, a total conversion of mind and heart is needed for it to take root and have meaning. It is easy to become complacent and comfortable with all that life can afford us. Life can become “all about me,” preserving my livelihood and protecting my securities. Often, this drive can become so strong that we eagerly strive to protect our self-interests at the expense of others. Other people are necessary only to the extent that they are “useful” to us and profitable.

Merriam-Webster defines entitlement as “the belief that one is deserving of or entitled to certain privileges.” In a world that pretends to offer us so many necessities, this is perhaps the greatest contemporary sin. When we feel “entitled” to something, even if it is perceived necessary, our relationships can get skewed. Unless we adopt a global vision of entitlement wherein everyone is entitled to the same things, we risk becoming extremely self-focused and selfish. All we care about is defending our rights and protecting our turf. This impulse can be so strong that we pursue it even at the expense of another. Is this what God intends for his children?

Holding on to this myopic vision, the plight and station of others are off our radar and of no real concern to us. Relying on our own merits and becoming resilient to life's challenges, we replace the true and real God with the one we created ourselves. Jesus and the prophets before him have consistently reminded us of the dangers of wealth, ignoring the poor and the needy, and becoming too fiercely independent and arrogant. Yet, we conduct our lives as if that message has never been preached. We give our faith a nod and never consider for a moment that we may be wrong in terms of what we see as important. “The things that we love tell us what we are (attributed to St. Thomas Aquinas).” Ponder those words a bit and remember that when we leave this world and go to the next one, what we loved here is what we will look for there. What we sought here may not be there.

Want to get involved in the pro-life movement? Here is the perfect opportunity! Right to Life of Indianapolis will hold the Annual Celebrate Life Dinner on Tuesday, October 4 at the Indianapolis Marriott Downtown. Keynote speaker will be Chuck Donovan, president of the Charlotte Lozier Institute. Chuck's career in public policy has given him a front row seat in abortion politics since before Roe v. Wade was decided until after it was overturned. You won't want to miss his insights on where the pro-life movement has come from, and where we are going next. Don't miss your chance to hear Chuck Donovan in Indianapolis on October 4. Registration is $75 per person, tables of 10 available for $750. Register online at www.rtlindy.org, or call the Right to Life of Indianapolis office 317-582-1526 to reserve your spot.

Landscape Architect Services Needed

IHM has begun collaborating with several other area churches, all of which provide support and partnership to the Martin Luther King Community Center. The collaboration is to build on our strengths and increase our impact. The first initiative being planned is an upgrade of the exterior green space at the MLK Center. The group is seeking the services of one or more landscape architects to work with stakeholders to develop a vision and plan for this green space. Anyone who would like to lend this skill set to the initiative is asked to contact Scott Lowe, the IHM contact person for the project.
