“...proclaim the word, be persistent whether it is convenient or inconvenient...”
 2 Timothy 4:2

It is not always convenient to be a good steward, especially when all the temptations of our busy and materialistic world get in the way. Now add our own pride and ego into the equation and living a stewardship lifestyle may be downright uncomfortable! Remember, God didn't call us to be comfortable. He never said that we would have an easy life. Rather, He called us to be faithful!

Boulevard Place Food Pantry Donations Needed

Calling on ALL IHM parishioners to grab a bag off our stands, or use your own, to donate food to the Boulevard Place Food Pantry. They need our help to quickly replenish their emptying shelves.

Your food will help restock the shelves, due to the very high demand placed on food supplies from recent increased patron numbers and increased hours to mitigate the crowding, while the pantry gets the food supplies adjusted. Thank you as always for your incredible generosity!

Best Items: canned meats (chicken, tuna, salmon) ramen noodles, pasta (any) and spaghetti sauce, peanut butter and jelly, cereal, pancake mix, syrup, oils, cooking spray, pre-made meals (Ravioli, Dinty Moore, canned meat chili, applesauce or fruit cups. As always, any grocery deal on other items is fine also.

Mass Intentions

Remember your loved ones with Mass Intentions. To have a Mass offered for someone, living or deceased, please contact the parish office. Mass offering is $10.

The Pastoral Council of IHM has initiated a program to recognize the work that so many volunteers do to make our parish a community. Profiles of these volunteers will be published regularly in the parish bulletin. Our next honoree is Lawrence (Larry) Coan.

Larry and his wife Ellen have been IHM parishioners for 30 years. All their adult children, Emily (Bannister), Elizabeth (O’Brien), Rebecca, and Lawrence are still active in the parish. Larry started coaching IHM Track and Field in the late 1990’s and continues through today. At the same time, he started working as a Confirmation Catechist, and that role has expanded into a leadership position in Confirmation preparation in the Parish. Through the years he has also served as a Eucharistic minister and Mass coordinator. He credits the outstanding parish staff and leadership over the past three decades.

Larry sees IHM not only as his faith community, but also as his extended family. He has always enjoyed working with the youth of the parish. He gets to know many of the IHM students through Track and Field in 4th through 8th grades, then reconnects when they are confirmed as sophomores. He finds it amazing to watch them grow up through junior high, then see them as young adults in high school. Larry believes that all Catechists face big challenges working with Catholic youth given the pressures of society and social media but stresses the importance of sticking with it to nurture as many souls as possible. Larry and his family are eternally grateful for the love and support they receive from the parish. He states, “I’ve been blessed with enough great IHM memories to last a lifetime.”

THANK YOU, LARRY COAN!

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

October 16, 2022 - 29th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Brendan wouldn’t stop. He continued nagging his mom to let him have a little more time with his phone. He knew the rules but wanted to finish a game and text a few more friends. He begged, had a temper tantrum, pleaded, screamed, pouted, and used every means he could think of to get Mom to change her mind. Mom had a busy day and was tired. At first, she held her ground. Then, her son’s persistence got the best of her, and she caved. “Brendan, you can have 30 more minutes and no more!” she retorted. Brendan’s determination paid off. He won.

Is this how it works with God too? If we want something enough and feel it is our due, does our persistence allow us to eventually get our way? Judging God by human standards, it would seem so. But is this the way God works? It gets a bit confusing when Jesus tells his disciples to “pray always without becoming weary” and then further tells them how God will “secure the rights of his chosen ones who call out to him day and night.” If we catch God at the right time, when he’s having a weak moment, then our tenacity ought to pay off. What we want, we will get. Really? Sadly, the way many approach prayer suggests that this is precisely how it goes.

Good parents set boundaries and offer proper discipline. They learn the art of being steadfast when presented with determined minds and wills. They know what is best and, at times, have to say “no.” God is always there with His full attention and unconditional love showering itself upon us. God also knows what is best. And, as with any good parent, the one constant that is always available and never withheld is love. We can be as persistent and determined as we want if what we are seeking is God’s love. We are never a bother and requests for God’s love are never denied. This is the prayer of the heart. Desiring God alone and not only what we want God to do for us places this love relationship foremost in our minds, hearts, and souls. God is never bothered by this prayer. As we breathe in and exhale out, the Divine Life freely flows.
