“...for whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and the one who humbles himself will be exalted.”
Luke 18:14

Pride and ego are the root causes of most of our sins. Thinking your time is so valuable or your talent is better than anyone else or your money gives you status is another way of making those things “gods” before God. Pride is the opposite of humility. Remember, all that we have and all that we are is a gift from God. We should be humbled by God’s incredible generosity and be grateful for all we have been given. Ultimately, gratitude leads us to humility.

Mass Intentions

Remember your loved ones with Mass Intentions. To have a Mass offered for someone, living or deceased, please contact the parish office. Mass offering is $10.

The Pastoral Council of IHM has initiated a program to recognize the work that so many volunteers do to make our parish a community. Profiles of these volunteers will be published regularly in the parish bulletin. Our next honoree is Lawrence (Larry) Coan.

Larry and his wife Ellen have been IHM parishioners for 30 years. All their adult children, Emily (Bannister), Elizabeth (O’Brien), Rebecca, and Lawrence are still active in the parish. Larry started coaching IHM Track and Field in the late 1990’s and continues through today. At the same time, he started working as a Confirmation Catechist, and that role has expanded into a leadership position in Confirmation preparation in the Parish. Through the years he has also served as a Eucharistic minister and Mass coordinator. He credits the outstanding parish staff and leadership over the past three decades.

Larry sees IHM not only as his faith community, but also as his extended family. He has always enjoyed working with the youth of the parish. He gets to know many of the IHM students through Track and Field in 4th through 8th grades, then reconnects when they are confirmed as sophomores. He finds it amazing to watch them grow up through junior high, then see them as young adults in high school. Larry believes that all Catechists face big challenges working with Catholic youth given the pressures of society and social media but stresses the importance of sticking with it to nurture as many souls as possible. Larry and his family are eternally grateful for the love and support they receive from the parish. He states, “I’ve been blessed with enough great IHM memories to last a lifetime.”

THANK YOU, LARRY COAN!

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

October 23, 2022 - 30th Sunday in Ordinary Time

There is a thing called “false piety.” It is when we wear a religious disguise of devotion, attend to our obligations, and outwardly abide by rules while being inwardly unkind, uncharitable, and exclusive. Wearing the right clothes, saying the proper prayers, being in sacred places, and reading devotional books, those exhibiting false piety craftily try to control others using the pretense of love. The Pharisees, consistently criticized by Jesus, are prime examples. Thinking they are superior to others, they foolishly believe they are better positioned with God and more worthy of God’s attention. Forming an exclusive “club,” they divide things between “mine” and “yours” and “us” and “them.” They quickly criticize and point out flaws and errors in rituals and thinking. Conformity becomes the first commandment and control is the game’s name.

The requirements for “club membership” are clear: do what we do, think what we think, and believe what we believe. Attempting to control others using the lure of “status” or “salvation,” they seduce others into thinking that conformity is the only way to holiness. Clinging to “my beliefs,” “my parish,” “my way of thinking,” they fail to see the more significant relationship with God that is veiled in all of these superficial rules and practices. Shallow, hollow, and empty vessels, they gloss over the more important virtues of justice, mercy, faithfulness, and forgiveness. Sparkling clean on the outside, but dirty on the inside. Spiritual arrogance is a grave sin. It alienates and hurts the little ones, those considered “least” in the kingdom.

God knows no favorites. Everyone belongs regardless of whether you are an official, bona fide member. Sometimes membership may be a detriment to actually living the Gospel if you’re joining the team for the wrong reasons. The genuinely humble ones may not appear to be overly “pious.” They may not know all of the proper prayers or abide by all of the correct rituals, but they know that they are broken and need mercy. There is no shame in being broken. In fact, many things need to be broken in order to be what they truly are! There is a reason Jesus told us to pray in private. It’s only between you and God. It is nobody else’s business.
