“...Rather, we wanted to present ourselves as a model for you, so that you might imitate us.”
2 THESSALONIANS 3:9

Most people who live a grateful and generous lifestyle don't go around bragging about it. But through their words and actions, others do take notice. They notice because of the joy and peace that results and others desire this in their own life. Know that the way you live your life may be the only interaction others may have with our Catholic faith.

IHM Leader in Me Program

“Hi, my name is Evan and I use the 7 Habits in so many ways every day. I use the 7th habit, Sharpen the Saw, every day when I participate in many extracurricular activities after school like chess, sports, and reading. To synergize, I practice teamwork with my baseball team and constantly look for ways to work together to help the whole team. Also, I always put first things first during testing days by studying and working at my schoolwork, before doing other fun activities. I hope to continue these skills throughout my life to continue becoming a better leader.”

The Pastoral Council of IHM has initiated a program to recognize the work that so many volunteers do to make our parish a community. Profiles of these volunteers will be published regularly in the parish bulletin. Our next honoree is SCOTT LOWE.

Scott and his wife Marie have been at IHM since 1999. Sons Nathan and Matthew attended IHM school, and Matthew is still a parishioner today.

Scott's ministry has focused on Outreach Programs including Lucious Newsum, Honduras, Transformational Outreach, Service Saturdays, and the Outreach leadership team. His energies have expanded to include the St. Anthony School ministry, IHM Golf Outing, Fish Fry's, CYO athletics, choir, and spiritual director for the men's retreat. Currently he is a member of IHM School Outreach committee, Changing Lives Forever, and a volunteer at the Martin Luther King Community Center where he is working to establish a coalition of neighborhood churches to support the MLK Center.

When asked, "Why do you do all that you do?" Scott replied: "I love the IHM community, and love makes you want to give and help build the community. I'm especially called to Outreach. I think it's at the top of the list for what it means to be a Christian. IHM people have good hearts but are often very busy. I've always enjoyed organizing activities that make it easier for busy people to participate in the community. I also like to help make connections between groups so they can work together."

Thank you, SCOTT LOWE!!

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

November 13, 2022 - 33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Many make it their life's ambition to determine precisely when the world will end. By reading the signs of the times, consulting scripture, or looking to prophetic predictions that are sometimes centuries old, they claim a certain credibility in being able to do so. Is all that necessary to know? Even when his disciples pointedly ask him this question, Jesus does not directly answer. While the end will inevitably come, Jesus points out that there is a lot we need to do first: remain faithful, face persecution, endure suffering, face wars and insurrections, and give testimony. Human beings tend to focus their energies on the wrong kingdom. Consumed with all of the things we have built and seeking to preserve them, we forget that we belong to a different kingdom, the Kingdom of God.

All of the "stuff" we have constructed will be taken away. All that will remain is God's kingdom. Which kingdom do we prefer? We answer that question by honestly looking at where we invest most of our time and energy. What matters to us as we embrace a new moment or day in our lives? If our relationship with God, the strength and integrity of our souls, and the steadfastness of our character are of utmost importance, then it matters little when the physical end will come. We will have what we need to persevere, endure, and confront whatever comes our way. Jesus cautions that we do not allow ourselves to be overwhelmed or overly terrified by the agonies and disappointments of the world. Although we may be apprehensive and uncertain when faced with complex challenges, God is with us. We will receive the inspiration we need to forge ahead.

God is a God of salvation and new beginnings. Whether we consider the daily unfolding of our earthly lives or our eternal ones to come, God never leaves us with dead ends. There is always hope, and there is always something new to come. As Julian of Norwich reminds us, "God made us, God loves us and God keeps us." This wisdom holds true whether life is stable and profitable or challenging and uncertain. If we remember this simple truth, we will be ready regardless of the day or the hour.
