"It is written: 'The Lord, your God, shall you worship and him alone shall you serve.'"
Matthew 4:10

Tempted between the riches and power of this world and service to God, Jesus chose service to His Father. If we wish to truly follow Jesus, we, too, must decide to turn away from worldly power and riches and put God at the center of our lives. Lent is our time to prune ourselves of earthly things and develop and nurture heavenly things. Lent is time to repent and let go of the other "gods" we have put before God.

IHM Leader in Me - “The musical is almost here! Rock of Ages is a show set in the 80s about following dreams, love stories, and coming of age. There will be singers, dancers, instrumentalists, actors, and stage crew. The play includes talent from grades 5 through 8, and even the young second and third graders will participate as rising stars (backup dancers). Big thanks to the directors Mrs. McDuffy and Ms. Kelsey for making the musical happen. I am an actor, singer, and dancer in musicals. I love the musical because of the fun people, being able to express myself, having fun being in character, the courage and confidence I gain from it, and most importantly the laughter of the crowd. I was Pumbaa last year in Lion King and had so much fun with it; it encouraged me to continue as an actor again this year. The musical will be March 2 and March 3, 2023, at 7:00. Actors, singers, and dancers will be performing at Marion University. You can get tickets online now at showtix4u.com and search IHM Rock of Ages.”

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

February 26, 2023 - 1st Sunday of Lent

The Spirit leads Jesus into the desert to be tempted by the devil, and we hear this: "He fasted for forty days and forty nights, and afterwards he was hungry." Seems like a questionable battle preparation plan. When I fast, I usually feel grouchy at best, and at worst, like I might pass out from longing for a hamburger. Isn't it better to be well-fed and fully hydrated, especially to face spiritual struggles? Why fast?

This might help. The origin of the word "fast" means to "hold firmly." We still use it that way when we say, "I held fast to my original decision." We human beings are a bundle of desires which vie for our attention: food, drink, comfort, safety, sex, laughter, beauty, and so on. If we can't manage to have a firm grip on them, in short order they'll have a firm grip on us. By fasting from our lower desires, we learn to firmly grip on to what is greater. Fasting leads us to a firmer hold on our body and mind.

Jesus fasts for us. He's showing us that his grace can help us regain this firm hold of our lives, which makes it more difficult for the devil to tempt us. But take it one more step. Fasting also teaches us to finally hold fast to Jesus, the Word of God in flesh. "Man does not live by bread alone," he says, "But by every word that comes forth from the mouth of God." Jesus' fasting reveals his fast hold to the Father in everything. May our fasting help us to grasp ourselves more firmly, and then to hold fast to Jesus alone.

PRAYING WITH THE SONGS WE SING (During Lent) By: Carey Landry

So many of the songs I write for the liturgy come directly out of moments of prayer. I would also like to suggest that songs, especially those that are expressions of passages of Scripture, can also be used as a source of prayer. One of the beautiful ways of praying with the Word of God is called "Lectio Divina", or "Divine Reading". The form I use is this, whether I am using a passage of Scripture directly or a sacred song: 1. I begin by asking the Holy Spirit to lead me as I enter into prayer. 2. I read through the entire passage or song slowly and prayerfully. 3. I re-read it again, this time listening more carefully for any words, sentences or passages that seem to move me more deeply. 4. In silence I sit with those lines, asking the Lord to help me understand what they mean in my life right now. 5. I give thanks to the Lord and the Spirit for what has been revealed.

When I was serving as a Hospital Chaplain at St. Vincent-Carmel Hospital, I used the hymn, "The Summons" for Lectio Divina prayer one day. The line that moved me so much was this: "Will you kiss the leper clean, and do such as this unseen?" Suddenly I received what I call "a droplet of revelation", and I was led to ask myself, "Are you willing to minister to those who are most alienated and isolated, those perhaps abandoned by their families or are devastated by a sudden difficult diagnosis and feel all alone? And are you willing to do this without notice, without fanfare?" Because of that significant moment of contemplation, I came to better understand the service I provided as a Chaplain (most of which was known only to the patient I was serving), as well as the meaning of "silent service", the kind of service that no one knows about except the one to whom it is provided; the kind of quiet service that, I dare say, most of us actually do each day for others.

Many of the songs in the JOURNEYSONGS hymnal (including our own songs) are on media platforms like iTunes, Spotify, Amazon, Pandora, and YouTube. YouTube will often also have the text of the song. Let the song "speak" to you in prayer and let the Holy Spirit lead you to what you need to hear. As we begin the Lenten season, a good hymn to begin with is the beautiful hymn "Hosea", by my friend, Gregory Norbet, which is based on the words of the prophet Hosea...

Come back to me with all your heart. Don't let fear keep us apart. Trees do bend, though straight and tall; so must we to others' call..

(REFRAIN): LONG HAVE I WAITED FOR YOUR COMING HOME TO ME AND LIVING DEEPLY OUR NEW LIFE.

The wilderness will lead you to your heart, where I will speak. Integrity and justice, with tenderness you shall know...

(REFRAIN)

You shall sleep secure with peace; faithfulness will be your joy.. (REFRAIN)

Historically we have practiced M/W/F at 6pm at Butler University, and we plan to be back on the same schedule in 2023 though nothing is finalized yet. Participants are expected to commit to 2 of the 3 practices each week. Practice is tentatively scheduled to begin on March 13. The total number of players will determine if we split each group into two teams. Additional information will be forthcoming but there are typically 7-8 games during the season which will start mid-April and run through mid-May. Games are generally during the work week. There will be a tournament at the end of the season, and our participation will be based on each team's place in their respective division. Practice is TBD but will likely be Sunday evenings. We are looking forward to another fun and competitive season! If you have any questions, email Brock Roseberry at broseberry@ratiodesign.com.
