"Because there is one bread, we, who are many, are one body, for we all partake of the one bread."

1 CORINTHIANS 10:17

As disciples of Jesus, we are called to lead holy lives and invite others to join us. We are called to be fed and to feed others. Living a stewardship lifestyle, being grateful and generous with our gifts, serves a twofold purpose. One, it helps build God's kingdom here on earth. Two, it helps us strengthen each other's relationship with God the Father, Jesus, and the Holy Spirit. It becomes our roadmap to Heaven. Let's help each other get there!

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

June 11, 2023 - The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

Years ago, a woman at daily Mass approached me in the communion procession. She had her arms crossed, indicating she wanted a blessing instead of the Sacred Host. She had tears in her eyes. I gave her a little blessing. She returned the next day. And the next. The same thing repeated. After a few weeks, I asked her why she didn't receive Holy Communion. She said she wasn't Catholic yet and was preparing to become so. I asked her why she wanted to be Catholic. She said, "Because I long to be in a real communion with Christ and with everyone I love." That, I submit, is a darn good reason. A few months later, she became Catholic and received the Body and Blood of Christ with unspeakably great joy and still does to this day.

Saint Paul says of the Eucharistic bread, "Is it not a participation in the body of Christ?" For Paul, the answer is obvious. Yes, it is exactly that. Which is why he can say, "we, though many, are one body." Jesus is truly, really, and substantially present in the Holy Eucharist. This is no magic trick, but a mystery of our salvation. He feeds us with the Sacrament of his body so that our communion with him — and with the other members of his body — is built up and becomes mature. That's why the Eucharist quenches our deep thirst for love and communion. The Body and Blood of Christ is the best reason to be Catholic. It's our participation of love in the one we love.

-Father John Muir ©LPi

Thank you from Punta Gorda, Honduras!

The community of IHM once again showed its unbelievable generosity. Having witnessed the charity over the years for St. Anthony School, I was prepared for the kindness that is present every day in this one-of-a-kind church. That said, I was overwhelmed by the kind words, caring gestures, and remarkable donations after the masses during the weekend of May 6th/7th. It was a blessing to be at IHM once again and share mass with you all.

The donations that were collected will go a long way to help with the electricity, plumbing, and roof concerns at Punta Gorda Catholic Church. I have created the website PGCatholicChurch.org so you can follow along on the progress and know where your donations are going. The work has already begun.

Feel free to drop any envelopes/checks in future mass collections made out to IHM with PG in the memo. Thank you to the IHM staff, who have been amazing in helping with this entire process.

Thank you all for your kindness and generosity.
Matt Javit
