*"Render therefore to Caesar the things that are Caesar's and to God the things that are God's."
Matthew 22:21*

Everything we are and everything we have belongs to God. We aren't "owners" of anything, we are merely "stewards" of the gifts God has given each of us. All God is asking is that we give back a portion of what He gave us. This is the essence of Stewardship. God should be our first priority in everything. All else comes second, especially our money.

IHM Leader In Me Program

This past Saturday the Junior High girls CYO volleyball teams had their first games. On Saturday when the A team played St. Luke, the girls on the team showed the Y Habits in their game. One of the main habits that the girls showed was Be Proactive. The girls were being proactive by taking responsibility when they let a ball drop, shanked a pass, or hit a ball into the net. The girls would talk to the team and work out how they would improve for the next play. The team worked out the struggles proactively and right away. They went on to win the game. ~Liby, Class of 2024

GOSPEL MEDITATION October 22, 2023 - 29th Sunday in Ordinary Time

With little more than a year until the United States' national elections, I find myself feeling, like many Catholics, both dread and energized. Dread, because our democratic republic can be a messy endeavor and campaigns a long, nasty, and unedifying slog; energized, because hope for positive societal change can be enticing and engaging. As a pastor, I see similar conflicting attitudes in those whom I serve. How can Catholics best engage our political arena in a way which is truly helpful and worthwhile?

This weeks' gospel reading offers wisdom in this regard. Jesus says, "Render therefore to Caesar the things are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's." This riddle forces us to answer for ourselves a hidden question: what is the relationship between political and divine authority? Two common but false answers lead to mischief. If we answer that the two are equivalent, politics becomes our absolute authority. This happens whenever religion is slave to the state, as in the travesty of the pro-Nazi German Christian movement in the 1930s and 40s. It also usually occurs when there is an official state religion. If we answer that the two are totally unrelated, we end up with an unchecked aggressive secularist state as we often experience now. Thus, religion becomes a weak and private pastime.

What's a better alternative? At our best, Christians hold that political authority does indeed have its own legitimate autonomy but is nested within God's all-encompassing authority. Think, for example, of Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.'s respect for politics while also being able to criticize unjust human laws because he recognized a higher heavenly law. In other words, Caesar owns politics — and God owns Caesar. So, we should allow Jesus' words to lead us to have a deep respect and willingness to peacefully engage in politics without making that engagement our religion. We bring our faith to bear on our politics knowing confidently that Caesar isn't God — but he is indeed God's.

~Father John Muir

TECH TALK

Does your child have a smartphone with Instagram, Snapchat or TikTok? Does your child play Roblox, Minecraft or Fortnite? Is your child constantly asking you for a phone or access to these apps? If the answer is yes to any of these questions, this is for you!

Tiffany Preston, Assistant United States Attorney for the Southern District of Indiana will be at IHM on Wednesday November 8th at 7pm in the library for an invaluable presentation on how to keep our children safe in the world of technology and social media. Come learn how to keep our kids safe on social media, messaging, and gaming apps such as Roblox, Instagram, Minecraft, Fortnite, Snapchat, TikTok and more.
