"My God will fully supply whatever you need..." - Philippians 4:19

God really does provide for those who are grateful and generous. This is very difficult for people that don't live a stewardship lifestyle to believe. People are skeptical and say it's just coincidence. If you are skeptical, try living a stewardship lifestyle for just one month – be generous with your gifts of time in prayer, talent in charitable works, and treasure, then see how God provides for your needs.

IHM Leader In Me Program

I use the 7 Habits everywhere I go in school. Most of the time I do not even realize the fact that I am doing them. They have truly become a habit to me. I could be in study hall doing work instead of talking with my friends. That would be habit 3: Put first things first. Another example could be me waiting until my teacher is done speaking before I ask them a question. That would be habit 5: Seek first to understand then to be understood.

Join our brothers and sisters throughout the Archdiocese of Indianapolis on Sunday, October 22, 2023, by supporting the annual appeal for World Mission Sunday. Please offer your prayerful, vocal and financial support.

Pope Francis' message for World Mission Sunday this year reflects on the theme: "Hearts on Fire, Feet on the Move." "Were not our hearts burning within us while he spoke to us on the way and opened the Scriptures to us?" (Luke 24:13) He invites us to set our hearts ablaze with faith and put our faith into action, serving God's mission with joy, enthusiasm, and tireless dedication.

As Christians, we're called to kindle the fire of Christ's love in our hearts. Our faith fuels our actions, inspiring us to serve others in our daily lives. Pope Francis encourages us to not only feel our faith, but to act on it.

GOSPEL MEDITATION October 15, 2023 - 28th Sunday in Ordinary Time

I confess that I have a soft spot for the scary things Jesus says because they are usually ignored. But there's gold in them that hills, if we have courage to look. This week Jesus gives us a terrifying warning in his parable about the king who gives a marriage feast for his son and promptly goes berserk when people don't respond. The point: those who do not properly respond to God's generous invitation will face totally devastating consequences. The invitees who don't show up get their city burned to the ground. The poor homeless man is tortured for not wearing the correct clothes. Scary indeed.

Is Jesus trying to intimidate or bully us into following him? No, because that is certainly not how he treats anyone in the Gospels. A better view is this: to Jesus, your life matters. The universe is not an empty wasteland where anything goes. It is a theater of love offered and either accepted or rejected. How easy it can be to glide through life thinking my life doesn't make a difference. But it does. It really does.

This should not only be sobering but exhilarating. The positive side of the negative in Jesus' scary parables is the thrill and joy that he is inviting us, therefore our lives matter a great deal. There is a reason to get up in the morning. God's generous love is relentlessly calling us. True, obstinately saying no through our indifference is a catastrophe for us and those around us. But how wonderful must the consequences of our 'yes' be?

~Father John Muir

TECH TALK

Come learn how to keep our kids safe on social media, messaging, and gaming apps such as Roblox, Instagram, Minecraft, Fortnite, Snapchat, TikTok and more.
