"Be watchful! Be alert! You do not know when the time will come." Mark 13:33

We all take things for granted. In particular, we take time for granted. We make our lives too busy. We plan our days, weeks, months, even years in advance. Remember, our time on earth is a gift. None of us knows how long we will be here. Start today and begin thanking God for each and every day. Take time in silence, every day, and listen to how God is calling you right now to help build His kingdom on earth.

IHM Leader in Me Program

Everyday in my life I use the 7 Habits. In school by being proactive I am making sure I have everything before I leave to go somewhere. I use the second habit, begin with the end in mind, by making sure I know what is happening & what I am doing next. For example, first I will finish my homework & then I will go to my activity. I use the third habit, which is doing all of my school work before I get on my phone or hang out with my friends. I use the fifth habit, Seek First to Understand, Then to Be Understood by thinking about how I should treat others before I would say anything to them. I always want to make sure in my head that I am saying a nice & kind thing to someone. I used the sixth habit, Synergize, by being able to be a good cast member to my other castmates. I can use this in not only acting but also school and my house. I can use the seventh habit, Sharpen the Saw, by taking breaks in activities & in school work if I need the break. I feel like this helps me a lot with school & my after school activities.

~Avery, Class Of 2024

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

December 3, 2023-1st Sunday of Advent

Lately I've been listening to a science-based podcast on healthy daily living. The host frequently discusses the wide range of health benefits of sleep. So, each night I'm trying to get more, and better, slumber, and it's helping me feel energized. So, why in the world should we follow Christ's advice this week? "Watch therefore, for you do not know when the master of the house will come ... lest he find you asleep." Isn't sleep, especially at midnight and cockcrow, a good thing?

Of course, it is. But the wakefulness the Lord calls us to is a deep, personal orientation to Him. A nightly vigil is therefore a metaphor for this, but it's not just that. We should give up real sleep in order to pray, too. This difficult practice is a time-tested way to foster wakefulness of heart. When we give up sleep to pray, it focuses us. We learn that life is not an endless series of days. You and I belong to the Lord — awake or asleep, in life and in death. Sooner or later, even our need for our physical sleep will pass away. And our attentiveness to God — that is, whether we are awaiting Him to meet us — will be all that matters.

May I challenge us this week and this Advent to intentionally give up at least one hour of sleep each week for prayer? Stay up later, wake up in the middle of the night, or an hour earlier, and pray. Will we be a bit more tired the next day? Yes. But we'll be amazed at the spiritual wakefulness that results, too.

~Father John
