The Mission of Immaculate Heart of Mary

The Immaculate Heart of Mary parish strives to be a vibrant Catholic community with the Gospel of Jesus Christ as our guide. We invite all to strengthen their spirituality and develop their relationship with God through dynamic liturgy, life-long learning, and sharing faith within and outside our community.

3RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

He walked along a little farther and saw James, the son of Zebedee, and his brother John. They too were in a boat mending their nets. Then he called them. So they left their father Zebedee in the boat along with the hired men and followed him. - Mk 1:19-20

*"Brothers and sisters: I should like you to be free of anxieties."
~1 Corinthians 7:32*

How much anxiety do we bring upon ourselves by constantly worrying about not having enough or attaining more things? God won't necessarily give you everything you want, but He will provide everything you need. Try this – use the word "pray" instead of the word "worry" in the future. Then spend your time praying instead of worrying.

Jesus and the Eucharist

A SMALL GROUP SERIES FOR EUCHARISTIC REVIVAL

IHM will join parishes around the country in implementing the seven-part series Jesus and the Eucharist Study. This has been created specifically for the Parish Year of the National Eucharistic Revival.

Throughout the study, from March 1-June 1, participants will better understand the kerygmatic proclamation and God's saving work in the Eucharist.

What does a typical Jesus and the Eucharist session look like?

Each session lasts about two hours, and includes:

- ~An encouraging message from a US bishop
- ~Lectio Divina (praying with scripture)
- ~Lesson with personal testimony
- ~Small group discussions

Pope Francis has said that respect for life is not just about the unborn child in the womb, but also about the least of our brothers and sisters. Yes, it is even upon the undocumented resident alien who has no voice but ours. As followers of Jesus Christ, we are all called to protect the voiceless.

Let us pray...

Good and gracious God, you blew into us the breath of life. You are the One to whom we owe our very existence.

Give us the courage to take that unpopular position of protecting those who have no voice, the unborn child in the womb to the person taking his or her last breath. The life you have given us is a gift beyond measure.

Embolden us to speak the truth about protecting the child, the elderly, and the one without a voice in the public square.

With thankful hearts, we ask all this of the One God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Amen

Cardinal Ritter & IHM would like to congratulate the following students on their hard work & dedication with their second quarter academic success.
Alex Geppert & Noah Geppert
Keep up the great work and we are all very proud of you!

IHM Leader in Me Program

You can use the 7 Habits in so many different situations in sports, competitions, school, etc. The one thing I think we all should remember is that sometimes the times we need the 7 Habits the most is just in our normal daily lives. For example, if you have siblings or a big family you need to be proactive and prepare for the next day the night before so you can be successful the next day. As well as think win win , there are going to be many fights and situations that seem unfair to someone, but the other person will be happy. This is where we need to use think win-win to make a decision that will help both peoples perspectives and be fair to both people. These are both super small things to do in our daily lives, which shows how the 7 Habits are.

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

January 21, 2024 ~ 3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

We start telling lies around the age of three, the experts tell us. It's understandable. Lying is a god-like power.
Whatever I want, I need only say it, and the world rearranges itself accordingly. It's amazing at first. But soon reality snaps back and I'm faced with a dilemma. If I remain committed to my lie I start to fracture into pieces. My words and reality drift apart, and I find myself lost in a lonely world of further falsehoods and fear of being found out.

How marvelous, then, that Jesus begins his ministry by proclaiming: "Repent!" We tend to think it means "stop doing bad things" but it doesn't. It literally means "go beyond the mind you have." Think in a new way.
It's painful to admit, but some portion of my mind is addicted to lie-telling, usually to protect my ego or make life easier. To repent means to admit this tendency, to say, "I'm done lying," and to move beyond my split mind into a complete commitment to the truth. Perhaps that's why at Mass we together proclaim, "I have sinned in my thoughts, and in my words..." Repentance and truth-telling work together.

Those who know the twelve-step process of addiction recovery know this process well. The fourth step requires radical truth-telling: listing our moral defects. This isn't being scrupulous. Rather it is freedom from falsehood, and entrance into the real world. This week, I invite you to join me in this practice. Get your phone or piece of paper. Answer the question: what are your true moral defects? Write them down. Remember, the Lord knows them already and loves you. We have a sacrament where this truth-telling is celebrated:
Confession. Perhaps it is finally time to go beyond our childish lies.
