FIRST COMMUNION

Let us pray for our parish children who celebrate their sacrament of First Holy Communion on April 27, 2024.

Bless the children coming forward to receive Holy Communion for the first time. May this day be an initial step into a life-long love of the Eucharist. Give them a hunger for this sacred food so that they turn to You for comfort, guidance, and wisdom as they grow into full discipleship. Thank you for their innocence and goodness. May their eagerness to receive Your Body and Blood inspire all of us to cherish this Sacred Sacrament. Amen.

Leader in Me

My name is Eleanor & I am a 5th grader at IHM. Being at IHM has taught me about the 7 Habits. Habit 1 is be proactive. I use this in lacrosse by encouraging my teammates & cheering them on from the side lines. Habit 2 is begin with the end in mind. I use this by always having a plan when things go wrong. Habit 3 is put first things first. I put first things first by putting my teammates before me in practice & games. Habit 4 is think win win. I use this habit by making my teammates always feel like winners. Habit 5 is seek first to understand then to be understood. I use habit 5 by listening to my coach before I talk. Habit 6, is synergize. I use this habit by working together, not alone. Habit 7 is sharpen the saw. I use habit 7 by staying on track & always participating. Thank you for reading my Leadership article.

~Eleanor, Class of 2027

Catholic Home Missions Appeal

Jesus calls his followers to love others as he loves them. Inspired by this call, Christians have shown his love through works of mercy such as visiting the sick and imprisoned, educating young people, and praying endlessly for others. Not only are these works of mercy directed to meet material or spiritual needs, but they are ways in which Christ draws people closer to himself.

Thank you for helping with the second collection.

Gospel Meditation

My friend and fellow pastor, Father Paul, noticed unsightly, overgrown trees near his parish church. He asked the maintenance crew to cut back the growth, which they happily did, telling him the trees would be much healthier and even fuller after a good pruning. A few days later, Father Paul received a letter from an irate man in the neighborhood who wrote, “Jesus would never prune trees like that. He loves trees, unlike you.”

I suspect that the neighbor was not familiar with this week's Gospel in which Jesus says of his Father, “He removes every branch in me that bears no fruit. Every branch that bears fruit he prunes to make it bear more fruit” (John 15:2) I don't mean to pick too much on that fellow. He was perhaps ignorant of arboriculture. But I'd wager his main confusion was the pruning and removing quality of God's love. That confusion afflicts us all to some degree, doesn't it? It is just so darn easy to react negatively when God cuts something out of our lives and assume it's not his work at all. In the moment, all we see is the loss, and not the loving desire for future flourishing.

The cross is the great pruning of Christ's body. Jesus' rising is the brand-new growth. It is God's promise to us that all the painful pruning in life is leading us somewhere beautiful. What has been cut back or out in your life? A friend, an opportunity, a sense of certainty, a job, health, a relationship? This week, offer those dry branches to the one who lovingly prunes us in order to make our lives burst with verdant growth.

~Father John Muir
