St. Ignatius of Loyola

How has God changed you?

This week we celebrate a spiritual master! Not only is St. Ignatius Loyola the founder of the Jesuits, but the legacy of his life of prayer inspired believers. Injured as a young soldier, Ignatius spent his time in recovery reading the lives of the saints. They inspired his soul to holy heroism, changing his life forever. Ignatius gathered a group of friends who also desired to be "contemplatives in action," finding God in all circumstances. This became the Jesuits -- a great missionary & teaching order. Ignatius himself was constantly attuned to his own inner promptings. This self-knowledge -- open to the movements of the Holy Spirit -- led him to be an incredibly astute spiritual director. For Ignatius, recognizing God as the first principle of one's life determined everything.

Eucharistic Congress

NATIONAL
Eucharistic Congress

These days of Eucharistic worship, fellowship & joy we've just experienced here in Indy are not meant to be a once-in-a-lifetime experience. Jesus wants to work through, with, and in us so that we will bear great fruit with him always. The closer we are to Jesus in the Eucharist, the closer we are to one another, united as his body, the Church!

Now we go forth.

No words can capture how absolutely beautiful this week was here. Our cups were filled. We laughed. We cried. We encountered the greatest gift ever given, Jesus in the Eucharist.

And now it's time we go forth today with zeal for the Lord & with a firm resolve to bring others to His loving gaze. May we go forth today with a commitment to love, to truly will the good of others. To put everything under the aegis of love. May we go forth today with an infusion of the Holy Spirit, knowing that we are sent. Sent to be gift. To the ends of the earth.

Gospel Meditation

July 28, 2024

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

The world is filled with people whose basic needs aren't met, whether for clean water, nutrition, safety, education, meaningful work, stable family life, basic medical resources, religious freedom, and the right to life. So how can we possibly believe what Psalm 145 says to us this week, "The hand of the Lord feeds us, he answers all our needs"? Does he? What about the countless poor? Can't we identify at least a few unmet needs in our own lives right now? Is the Bible promoting wishful thinking and laziness in helping others?

No. The psalm flows from Israel's experience of God's relentless fidelity again and again —especially in the Passover from Egypt. This divine providence is recalled when Jesus feeds the needy multitudes in the Gospel of John. Passover arrives once again, and the people are hungry like the ancient Israelites on the wilderness journey. What is new is that in Jesus God not only provides for their needs, but He learns what it's like to have those human needs. He shares them too. He feeds them bread and fish; and even more, He hungers to provide them, and us, much more than just that kind of perishable food.

Our deepest need is for God. Like the multiplied bread, all earthly provisions ultimately fail, for we all finally die. Of course, our obligation to meet the needs of the poor is basic. But Christ promises to feed us with the one bread that never fails: God Himself. He is humanity's eternal food. If we eat this bread, we taste the faithfulness of God who answers all our needs, even when every earthly thing fails.

~Father John Muir

Outreach

A recent Criterion article highlighted Matt Javit's move to Honduras and the generosity of our IHM parishioners last May. It was a huge blessing for the people of the community there at Punta Gorda. The Catholic Church could use another boost of funds for much-needed improvements. Matt will be back August 17-18 to speak to us all. See the progress of the improvements that the donations made last year - <https://pgcatholicchurch.org/ihm/> We look forward to helping the people of Punta Gorda once again.
