A PRAYER FOR LIFE to Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament

O Jesus, you came that we might have life-and have it in abundance. Together with the Father and the Holy Spirit, you form us in our mothers' wombs and call us to love you for all eternity.

As your most precious gift of human life is attacked, draw us ever closer to your Real Presence in the Eucharist. Dispel the darkness of the culture of death, for you are the light that shines in the darkness, and the darkness cannot overcome it. By the power of your Eucharistic Presence, help us to defend the life of every human person at every stage. Transform our hearts to protect and cherish all whose lives are most vulnerable.

For you are God, forever and ever. - AMEN.

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

October 13, 2024~28th Sunday in Ordinary Time

This week we hear of the man who inquires of Jesus how to obtain eternal life. He rejects Jesus' invitation to sell his goods, give to the poor, and follow Jesus. Mark tells us this devastatingly sad line, "At this saying, his countenance fell and he went away sorrowful; for he had great possessions" (Mark 10:22). The man's heart wasn't centered on Jesus, but on his possessions. Perhaps Jesus intuited this. Now, we don't know if Jesus intended to actually make him go through with it, like God's call to test Abraham's willingness to sacrifice Isaac. But sadly, in this case the willingness was not there to entrust everything to Jesus. And this made the man deeply sad.

For most of us, the literal dispossessing of our goods is not our call. But as Christians, a consistent renouncing of them is. This week, especially if you're noticing a persisting sadness, I invite you to hear Jesus calling you to acknowledge that none of your possessions are finally yours. They are God's and on loan to you. We get so addicted to that stuffy and sad word, "mine." At Mass, we rehearse this attitude of joyful detachment by giving bread, wine, and money to the Lord, as if to say, "Lord, all I have is yours." And what we get back is a sadness-defeating joy beyond all description: knowing that He is ours, and we are His.

What possessions are pre-occupying you at the moment? Write them down. Intentionally offer them to the Lord at the next Mass you attend.
~Father John Muir

BOULEVARD PLACE

Music Ministry

Once a month, our Director of Music Ministry, Joe Burrows, will highlight a Mass Hymn to enhance our worship experience. This song "One Love Released" was used as the communion song for all masses last weekend.

O WALY WALY is a traditional English melody which dates back at least to 1724. Hal H. Hopson (b. 1933) adapted & arranged the melody as an anthem in 1971 for his setting of 1 Corinthians 13, "Gift of Love"; his version became known as Gift of Love.

Hopson was educated at Baylor University & Southern Baptist Seminary. He served various churches in the Nashville area as organist & choir director. He has also taught at Westminster Choir College, Princeton, NJ. Over eight hundred of Hopson's hymn tunes, keyboard & choral compositions have been published. He takes an active role in many conferences & music clinics and was a major contributor to the Presbyterian Psalter (1994).

Listen to the beautiful arrangement Joe made here : <https://youtu.be/e3mff6mJsCc>
