A poor widow also came and put in two small coins worth a few cents. Calling his disciples to himself, he said to them, "Amen, I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all the other contributors to the treasury." - Mk 12:42-43

"Hearing that divine call, which is far from being an imposed duty – even in the name of a religious ideal – is the surest way for us to fulfil our deepest desire for happiness. Our life finds fulfilment when we discover who we are, what our gifts are, where we can make them bear fruit, and what path we can follow in order to become signs and instruments of love, generous acceptance, beauty & peace, wherever we find ourselves".

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

November 10, 2024~32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Once at an evening Mass as a poor college student, the collection basket was fast approaching, and I only had a ten-dollar bill. I was planning on using that to buy my favorite Chipotle burrito that night for dinner. Should I keep the money? Who would know if I did? If I gave it away, what would I eat? Would I be okay? I kissed my future burrito goodbye, dropped the money in the basket, and winced. But strangely, the rest of the Mass I felt more engaged than usual. I had skin in the game. I left the Mass excited to see how God would take care of me. And he did, in amazing ways.

When the poor widow places two copper coins in the temple treasury, Jesus doesn't pity her. He praises her. He blesses her. He brags about her. He celebrates her as the temple's largest benefactor. Her giving is an act of radical, concrete trust in God. It is as if she is entering a new level of giving that excites Jesus, because she contributes not out of her abundance, but she gives "everything she had."

What a challenge this is to each one of us! How easy it is to ignore this! But imagine the eruption of the energy of faith, hope, and love that would be unlocked if our financial sacrifices to the Church actually tapped into daily bread and not only our disposable income. I challenge us to try this in some way this coming week and see what happens in our hearts. Even if it costs us a burrito.

~Father John Muir

United Catholic Appeal Intention Weekend

The United Catholic Appeal is the primary source of funding for many programs and ministries that extend beyond the capabilities of individual parishes, made possible only through your collective generosity. The needs of the ministries in our archdiocese are greater than any one person or parish can handle. But when we all come together, united, we can make a true difference in the lives of thousands of our brothers and sisters who need our love and support. No gift is too small. Please join us in this great opportunity to share the love of Jesus with others. Go to: <https://www.unitedcatholicappeal.org/waystogive>

"We must not separate our life from the Eucharist. The moment we do so, something shatters." ~St. Teresa of Calcutta

Leader in Me

You can use the third habit, Put First Things First, when doing your homework. If you want to go to your friend's house, but you have math and social studies homework, then you should do your homework first. Another example is if you want to go to the mall, but you need to finish your English project that is due in 2 days, then you should do it before you go to the mall.

It is important to put first things first because sometimes some things are more important than other things even though they might not be fun. ~Libby, Class of 2027
