Jubilee 2025

The year 2025 stands before us like a blank canvas, inviting us to envision our dreams and transform our lives. This year might even extend an invitation to let go of the burden of hurt and stress, offering the blessing of a new start. With a new year comes new hope.

In this Jubilee Year, we root our hope in a stronger foundation: we are invited to set out with the whole Church as Pilgrims of Hope. Pope Francis, in his letter announcing the Jubilee Year, prayed that in this year we will “fan the flame of hope that has been given us, and help everyone to gain new strength and certainty by looking to the future with an open spirit, a trusting heart and far-sighted vision.” By opening ourselves to the transformative power of God’s grace, we align our aspirations with God’s purpose and welcome truly meaningful change into our lives.

As we begin 2025, therefore, let’s aspire not just for change, but for transformation and genuine revival. Revival is more than mere resolutions; revival results from God moving in our lives. Friends, the desire you feel for excellence and great things is holy. But to find true satisfaction and fulfillment in life, it is crucial to anchor your hope in something far more substantial than worldly ambitions.

The pursuit of fleeting goals leads to emptiness, as the Apostle Paul reminds us, “The world in its present form is passing away” 1 Cor 7:31).

More information can be found at www.archindy.org/jubilee.

Collection for the Church in Latin America

We will take up the Collection next weekend for the Church in Latin America. For many in Latin America and the Caribbean, a rising secular culture, difficult rural terrain, and a shortage of ministers all present obstacles to practicing the faith. Your support for the collection provides lay leadership training, catechesis, priestly and religious formation, and other programs to share our Catholic faith with those who long to hear the Good News of Christ.

To learn more about how your gifts make a difference, visit www.usccb.org/latin-america.

GOSPEL MEDITATION, January 19th

ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE-

A friend invited me to an invitation-only wine-tasting event. There were over two hundred varieties of wine. Having no idea how to approach such a massive selection, I wandered aimlessly among the tables, sipping this and that. At the end of the evening my friend asked if I had tried some of the exceptionally expensive wines. I hadn’t. “The really good stuff disappears first,” he said. “My man, you missed out on some amazing vino.” I was so disappointed. I wasted my chance for amazing once-in-a-lifetime wine. The wine I tasted was, well, blah.

Don’t we often feel a similar disappointment in life? I missed this or that opportunity. If only I had known. Optimism sputters and fades. The glory days are gone. The chances, it seems, for the really great things in life come and go so quickly. Then they are gone forever. The good stuff goes first. Then life is just blah.

Not so with the Lord Jesus. In Jesus’ miracle at the wedding at Cana, the steward of the feast says, “Everyone serves good wine first, and then...an inferior one” (John 2:10). That’s the natural downward progression of life. The good stuff disappears quickly. But he says of the groom (who symbolizes Jesus), “But you have kept the good wine until now.” This is the ever-improving trajectory of the realm of God’s grace. With Jesus, the “good wine” of divine love, hope and peace gets better as our journey of faith progresses. Where are your greatest disappointments? Don’t give in to the lie that the really good stuff is gone. Tell Jesus you’ve run out. Then learn how to taste that amazingly good wine, because he saves the best until now.

~Father John Muir

John D. Kelley Vocations Essay Contest

The Serra Club of Indianapolis is sponsoring its 2025 annual vocations essay contest. It is open to any Catholic student in grades 7 through 12 in parochial, public or homeschool systems in the Archdiocese of Indianapolis.

The theme for this year's contest is:

The Holy Father has announced that 2025 is a Jubilee Year, a special occasion which happens every 25 years. The celebration begins on Christmas Eve, December 24, 2024, and concludes on January 6, 2026, on the Feast of the Epiphany. The theme for this Jubilee Year is "Pilgrims of Hope".

Please answer this question:

How has a priest or consecrated person encouraged you to seek God? How does pursuing a vocation bring hope into your life? And how are you preparing to know where God is calling you to build up his kingdom with your God-given talents?

For more details and an essay submission form, contact your school religion teacher, REP instructor, or parish catechist/youth minister. Information is also available from the Office of Vocations at vocations@archindy.org.
