Leader in Me

I Put First Things First by prioritizing school work. Putting my schoolwork first helps me not become overwhelmed or stressed with projects, homework, and reading. Putting First Things First not only helps me with school but also helps me with my schedule after school. For example when I get home from school I would do my homework, shower, pack my lunch, and read. In all Putting First Things First helps me not be stressed out, finish everything I need to do, and be productive.

Forever Grateful to Mrs. Ryan

One of the most vibrant parish ministries is our CYO Sports program for our young parishioners. Hundreds of athletes participate every year with countless volunteers engaged as coaches and coordinators. We have been blessed to have a faithful servant organizing all of our athletic endeavors for the past seven years as our Director of Sports Ministry: Paula Ryan.

Mrs. Ryan managed our gym schedule, guided our Athletic Commission, processed our athlete registrations, and coordinated our coaches to make our wonderful CYO athletic opportunities possible. And, long before her staff role, and even before having kids of her own, she volunteered to coach volleyball and basketball here at IHM.

Since she became a parishioner in 2002, we have truly been blessed to have her generous spirit on the sidelines building up a player who needs a boost, in the stands encouraging parents in a positive way, at board tables reminding coordinators of our focus on Christian values, and in emails instructing coaches on how to infuse our faith into their activities on the field. And, in every interaction, Paula shares the biggest, most sincere smile. There is no better example for our children (and adults) of a servant leader than Paula Ryan. We are so blessed to have had Paula involved in our athletic program, and we wish her God's abundant joy and blessings in her retirement!

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

Jesus knew how it would be. He knew we would stumble in the dark, grasping for answers. And so he sent us a light: the Holy Spirit, the illumination of all that is true. Dare we look into the light? Are we ready to see the truth?

Gospel Meditation

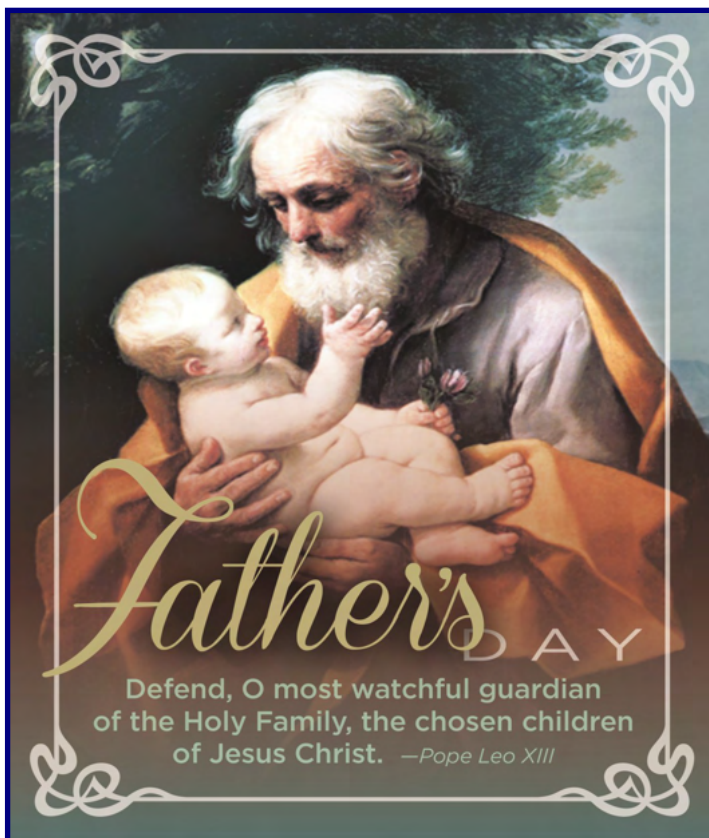

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

I am amazed at how my four siblings teach their many kids in age-appropriate ways. For example, now that my nephew Brandon is 24 years of age, they give him insights and freedoms that would have been positively confounding or even dangerous when he was a toddler. Imagine if they had taught him at age four how to drive a car, use a credit card online, or handle power tools. But eventually, they did, and he is a high functioning young man, I'm proud to say. They are good teachers.

This week we learn that Jesus teaches us in a similar way. He says to his Apostles, "I have much more to tell you, but you cannot bear it now" (John 16:12). How disappointing for them. But imagine at that moment, before his resurrection and ascension, if the Lord had started telling them about synods and sacraments, popes and parishes, martyrs and monasteries, rosaries and relics, catechisms and crucifixes? They would have been absolutely overwhelmed, confused, and discouraged. He tells them what they need to know, when it is time for them to know it.

So he does for us. Jesus has unceasingly taught the Church as she matures through the centuries, just as he teaches you and me through our lives in ways we can understand. Our task should be to learn what he is teaching us now, knowing that (although revelation per se is complete in him and his Apostles), he never ceases to teach us as we spiritually mature. Be confident: he knows what you are ready to learn now.
