Inspiration of the Week

Five loaves and two fish: a measly portion of food for such a large crowd of people. But we must remember that it doesn't matter what the size of our offering is. If we only lay it before Christ, he will take it and make it a mighty bounty.

Archbishop Thompson

On June 29th, Archbishop Thompson will celebrate the 14th anniversary of his episcopal ordination, as he was ordained the bishop of the Evansville Diocese on that date in 2011.

As we celebrate this anniversary, we feel blessed to have a shepherd who consistently reminds us to never lose hope—no matter the challenges we face. Let us always be people of faith with an unwavering trust in God, remembering Jesus Christ is our hope and our salvation.

Let us also be thankful for the Archbishop's encouragement that each of us become missionary disciples, helping build the Body of Christ on our pilgrimage of faith.

Congratulations and blessings on your anniversaries, Archbishop. Most of all, thank you for your example and your encouragement for us to be Christ-centered people.

Meet our new Director of Sports Ministry

This month, we welcome, Annie Rumer, to her parish role as our Director of Sports Ministry! Annie and her family have been IHM parishioners for seven years. Annie competed in CYO sports as a student at St. Matthew, and also played basketball, volleyball, and softball at Cathedral before playing D1 volleyball! She has coached all three of those sports, and most recently an undefeated IHM 4th grade boys basketball team! Annie also serves as our school nurse three days a week. Annie shared, "I love the teamwork involved in athletics. CYO athletics was the foundation for my love of playing sports. I am so fortunate to be able to give back to CYO and help guide these young athletes and coaches!"

SUPPORT THE WORKS OF THE HOLY FATHER THROUGH THE

Peter's Pence Collection

Be a sign of mercy.

Starting with the first disciples of Jesus and his Apostles and continuing today, Christians have given of their resources to support the Church's mission of preaching the Gospel and providing for the needs of the poor. As the Church has grown and spread across the world, Christians have long expressed their unity with the Holy Father and their commitment to his mission of mercy through an annual contribution called Peter's Pence.

Today, Catholics who contribute to the Peter's Pence Collection continue this legacy of church unity and care for the poor. Their gifts to the Holy Father are "concrete signs of hope" to Pope Francis and fulfill the two aims of Peter's Pence as set by the Holy See: "(1) To support the Holy Father's mission, which extends throughout the entire world, from the proclamation of the Gospel to the promotion of integral human development, education, peace, and brotherhood among peoples: thanks also to the many activities of service carried out by the dicasteries, bodies and organs of the Holy See that assist him every day; and (2) To support the numerous charitable works in aid of people and families in difficulty, populations afflicted by natural disasters and wars, or who are in need of humanitarian assistance or support for development."

For more information on Peter's Pence, please visit the Vatican's Peter's Pence website:

www.obolodisapietro.va/en.html (English) or www.obolodisapietro.va/es.html (español).

"Let us hasten to pursue paths of peace and fraternity. Let us rejoice at the concrete signs of hope that reach us from so many countries."—Pope Francis, "Urbi et Orbi" Message, April 9, 2023

A Tradition of Support for the Holy Father

Support for such papal efforts is rooted in the scriptural message exhorting us to take care of the poor, and it expresses unity with the Holy Father in two ways: through the ongoing activities of the Holy See and through the charitable works of the Holy Father on behalf of those most in need.

How You Can Help

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

A Catholic friend of mine occasionally says, "The Eucharist is not a noun. It's a verb." In so saying, he is making the point that the Eucharist isn't simply Jesus' bodily presence given to us in holy Communion. It also manifests the dynamic pattern by which Christ actively loves and saves us. He teaches us to cooperate with that pattern. This Eucharist actually embodies four verbs: Jesus takes, blesses, breaks, and gives. Let's consider each one.

He takes: Do we acknowledge that we are totally in God's hands? Do we receive everything in our lives as a gift, and act responsibly with it?

He blesses: Do we actively reflect that Jesus makes us holy in our baptism? Do we embrace our bodies and souls as temples of God, worthy of love, peace, and joy?

He breaks: Do we run from failure and disappointment, from getting old or being ignored? Are we too worried about getting hurt or sick? Do we embrace our sufferings with confidence?

He gives: Are we willing to make our lives a gift for others? Are we confident that we will always have enough love to give to others, that God will always provide enough for us? Do we rejoice in giving away what we have to others, expecting nothing in return? This is the dynamic life the Eucharist empowers us to live.

— Father John Muir
