We invite you to come & spend time a Holy hour with Jesus every Wednesday after 5:30pm Mass.

"A Holy Hour in front of the Blessed Sacrament is worth more than a thousand years of human glory."

~St. Padre Pio

St Benedict

Have you ever wanted to change the world? 5th century Europe was a dark place. The Roman Empire had fallen, and barbarian tribes were picking over the scraps of what remained. Faith hung on, but there was no consistent, coherent Christian culture in the world around. Young Benedict began his life with education and privilege but became disillusioned by a life pursuing material success. He withdrew to a monastery and spent much time in solitude. He began attracting followers, whom he organized over time into 12 monasteries, with a 13th established to train young monks. He wrote a rule of life including basic principles for living as Christ. His monks took three vows: conversion to Christ, obedience to the local abbot, and stability to remain with the community. Benedictine monasteries became lights in the darkness, secure centers of Christian culture enlivening the faithful beyond their walls. When the world around us seems complicated and contrary to the Gospel, how will you be a light?

Homelessness is a serious issue, especially for families who often face separation due to shelter limitations. Holy Family Shelter, supported by the United Catholic Appeal, offers hope by keeping families together and providing refuge.

The shelter offers not only a safe place but also rehabilitation services, counseling, skill-building programs, and resources to help families regain stability and become self-sufficient.

Supporting the United Catholic Appeal enables Holy Family Shelter to continue its vital work, helping homeless families stay united and empowering them towards stability and independence. Together, we can make a tangible difference in their lives.

Jim Hallett, retired CEO of KAR and owner of the Indy Fuel hockey team, will address the July Catholic Business Exchange. His topic will be: Leaving it to God.

With him at the helm, KAR went public in 2009, and since then has acquired dozens of companies and strategic assets, including OPENLANE, BacklotCars, TradeRev, DRIVIN and CarsOnTheWeb (now ADESA Europe). A lifelong hockey fan, he is the owner of the Indy Fuel, the minor league affiliate of the Chicago Blackhawks, and the Indy Fuel Tank, a facility located in Fishers, Indiana and dedicated to developing youth ice sports in central Indiana. He is also the president and CEO of Hallett Sports and Entertainment and has been heavily involved in the planning and construction of the new 8,500-seat entertainment and event center in Fishers.

The event is July 18, at the Northside Events and Social Club. Mass is offered at 7am and the program will be finished by 9am. Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

In the days after the awful 2020 killing of George Floyd, a Catholic friend remarked, "Racism is today's great evil. We should put all our energy into fighting it." I admired her intuition that the church must stand firmly against evil. Amen, I thought. At the same time, something felt wrong. As months went by, I saw her steadily slide into bitterness and anger. Soon, despondency. She spoke of giving up the fight. Don't we too wonder how to fight evil without losing our joy or energy?

Jesus' words this week help. He says, "Rejoice not that you have power over demons, but that your names are written in heaven" (Luke 10:20). Notice the asymmetry in where he wants our focus: on the latter, not the former. Should we confidently embrace our God-given power to overcome evil? Absolutely. But even more so, we should emphasize the positive element of our relationship to God. It is tempting but dangerous to define ourselves by what we oppose. It is better to define ourselves by--to rejoice in--what we celebrate: in Jesus, God has written our names in heaven. This sustains our battles.

This week, our marching orders are: fight evil. But more deeply, rejoice that God knows and loves us personally, individually. We allow this joyful knowledge to undergird our fight against the darkness of our day. Then we enjoy long-term stability to be cheerful warriors, who never forget the reason for the contests we are called to fight and win: love.

— Father John Muir
