Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

Jesus warns us that at any moment we can be called before God to face judgment. When we are, our life will be measured not in dollars or accomplishments, but in what matters to God. What do we have to show for our time spent on earth?

Prayer for Open Hands

Lord, I do not know what any day holds,
I cannot take for granted any of the gifts You have given.
Help me to use them, then, as You would have me.
Help me to live according to Your invitations.
Amen.

Baptism

With joyful hearts, we welcome our newly baptized:

Payton Machiel Rougraff

~child of Breauna & Mitch

Making God Known, Loved, & Served by

*May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing,
so that, by the power of the Holy Spirit,
you may abound in hope.*

As July comes to an end, and August sneaks in to round out our Summer, we can't help but be excited about coming together to live out our IHM School mission of "Making God known, loved, and served." Every year, we focus on a unique aspect of how we can make this mission come to life. This year, we want to make God known, loved, and served by "Sharing Hope." We want our focus to be on the service of others because in serving, we truly share the gift of hope to those in need. The theme for this jubilee year of our Catholic Church is "Pilgrims of Hope," so we journey into this new year with servant hearts to share the gift of hope!

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

Recent studies suggest that millennials will be the first generation in America to be worse off than their parents in terms of financial earnings and job status. Many lament this. I propose that this week's Gospel provides a hopeful way to see the trend as good news.

The Lord Jesus says, "Take care to guard against greed, for though one may be rich, one's life does not consist in possessions" (Luke 12:15). Greed damages us with the deception that we are what we possess. But to Jesus, this is simply not true. What makes us happy is who we are, who we become.

Does not the expectation that every generation should do better than their parents subtly mask the poison of greed? A similar attitude is mirrored in the man who demands that Jesus justly arrange his share of the family inheritance. Despite the injustice, Jesus will not play that game. In fact, he seems to prefer that the man have less than his parents. What good would having more be to this man if he becomes enslaved and miserable by greed? What good would it be for us to have more if it means we become much less?

In allowing the man to have less, Jesus opens a space for him to become more: a man free to love. In that much more meaningful sense, perhaps he was better off than his parents. Maybe the millennials will be, too.

— Father John Muir

Devotions, Explained!

A holy hour is the practice of spending one hour's time in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament, praying and meditating on the agony of Jesus Christ.

STREETS TO HOME
INDY

Faith Community Initiative

This summer, our congregation is joining faith communities across Central Indiana in a powerful effort to end chronic homelessness through the STREETS TO HOME Initiative.

This bold partnership—between the City of Indianapolis, The Indianapolis Foundation, CHIP (the Coalition for Homelessness Intervention and Prevention), and faith, corporate, and philanthropic partners—will provide permanent housing and support services for 350 of our most vulnerable neighbors by March 2026. The public and private sectors have stepped up—and the faith community has pledged to raise $270,000 to help make this vision real. Our congregation is committed to doing our part.

HERE'S HOW YOU CAN HELP:

- ▶ Make a personal donation today—gifts of any size make a difference.
A few individuals giving boldly can carry a powerful portion of this work. Scan the QR code below to donate.
- ▶ Join us the weekend of August 15–17, 2025, when we'll collect a special offering as part of a region-wide moment of hope and action.
- ▶ Attend the free kickoff screening of *Beyond the Bridge: A Solution to Homelessness
♦ St. Luke's UMC | Thursday, August 14 at 6 PM

WE'RE ALSO INVITING INDIVIDUALS WHO ARE MOVED TO DO MORE—

Perhaps by offering a matching gift, making a larger personal contribution, or covering a significant portion of our goal—to reach out to our leadership. In a world that often feels overwhelming, this is a faithful, tangible way to respond. You can help bring someone not just a roof—but a home. We are excited to be part of something life-changing in our community. Together—and individually—we can offer hope.
