Keeping the Faith: Raising Catholic Kids

Calling all middle and high school parents!

Join presenters Preston and Mary Kate Becker on Tuesday, October 7th, at 7 pm in the Gathering Space as we talk about the challenges and joys of raising kids in the faith and take home some practical tips and strategies for strengthening the domestic church.

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

The rich man had a chance, every day of his life, to choose righteousness. But righteousness wasn't convenient for him. He discovered too late that the only time we have to follow God is now. Here. This moment. Will we take our chance?

Cathedral Soup Kitchen

Please consider helping to volunteer on Sunday, September 28 from 11:30 am to 1:45 pm. The Cathedral Kitchen is located at 1306 N Pennsylvania St. We set up, serve, and clean up after another crew does the cooking. Sign up HERE. Please wear closed-toed shoes and a hat/ball cap for health code reasons. If you have any questions, contact Allison Gardner at allison8588@gmail.com.

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

I am embarrassed to admit that I frequently find myself dining and socializing with people who have millions and sometimes billions of dollars. I've eaten more caviar, lobster and wagyu steak than most people on the planet. I justify it by saying it's part of my job. But I have seven pairs of nice jeans and expensive shoes.

So it is rather uncomfortable to hear Our Lord say: "My child, remember that you received what was good in your lifetime, while Lazarus likewise received what was bad; but now he is comforted here, whereas you are tormented" (Luke 16:25). Fellow rich people (and if you're American, you're rich), do we not vehemently though quietly object to this parable's karma-esque reward system? Why bless the rich man just to curse him later? And curse Lazarus just to bless him later? So Americans go to hell, while Burundians and Afghans go to heaven? What is going on?

One clue is that the condemned rich man doesn't complain of injustice. Rather, he simply begs to help his brothers to repent. Of what? We don't know exactly. Perhaps another clue is that the rich man now seems more like the downtrodden Lazarus. He knows what it is to be hungry and thirsty, to be wounded in the gutter; that he deserved that, not fancy meals and clothes. Maybe the rich man finally understands how to receive true blessings, but it is too late for him. But not for me. Not for us.

— Father John Muir

Walk through the Mass

On Thursday, October 9 at 7:00pm, our OCIA group's meeting will focus on the Mass. We would like to invite the parish to join our OCIA cohorts for a "Walk thru the Mass." As he has done in the past Fr. Pat will slowly focus on the meaning behind every prayer, gesture, and action of the Catholic liturgy. The structure consists of four main parts: the Introductory Rites, the Liturgy of the Word, the Liturgy of the Eucharist, and the Concluding Rites.

PET Blessing

Bring your pet on Thursday, October 2nd at 8am on the School Parking Lot for our parish Pet Blessing.

We celebrate our pets for the Feast of Saint Francis who is the patron saint of animals. Please arrive on time with your dogs on leashes and other animals in cages. If you can't physically bring your pet, we encourage owners to bring a photo for the blessing.

Blood Drive

Every two seconds, someone in the U.S. needs a blood transfusion. Cancer patients, trauma victims, premature babies, and those undergoing surgery all rely on one thing: the generosity of blood donors like you.

Why Donate Blood?

~One Donation Can Save Up to Three Lives

When you donate blood, it's separated into components — red cells, plasma, and platelets — each of which can be used for different patients with different needs. That means one donation doesn't just help one person — it helps three. It's a small act with massive impact.

Join on Sunday, October 26 from 8:00am-1pm at our IHM Activity Center. Sign up HERE.

Stronger Together

LeaderinMe

This week, the 8th graders at IHM took their HSPT, or High School Placement Test. Taking this helped me remember that going into high school will be a big jump, and so I should continue to use the 7 Habits to help me in my high school academics, sports, and leadership experiences. I currently use all of the habits throughout my day, week, or year. This week, for example, I used the third habit, putting first things first. When I get home from school, I have lots of different after school activities that go on later in the afternoon. Therefore, I prioritize doing my homework and completing any unfinished assignments that I have before I watch a show, hang out with friends, or go to practice. I also use the first habit, being proactive, on a daily basis. If I know that I have a big assignment coming up, I make sure to try and work ahead or complete things in advance, so I make sure to give myself plenty of time to do the upcoming project. By continuously using these habits in my daily life, I better prepare myself for my upcoming high school years.

The 6th grade fundraiser

Shoppers will find high-quality gift wrap and over 2,500 other products like kitchen cookware, home decor items, delicious treats, and monogrammed items, perfect for the holidays!

Our 6th grade students will begin raising money toward their future 8th grade class trip to Washington, D.C.! As ONE community at IHM, we ask all families in every grade level to come together and support this time-honored tradition for our 6th grade class.

Please purchase HERE or use this QR code

Host Homes Needed

On October 28th and 29th, we will be having our 7th and 8th grade retreats hosted by NET ministries. We are looking for 2-4 families that will be willing to host our Young Adult Leaders on the nights of October 27 and 28th. You would provide at least 2 members a place to sleep, eat dinner with your family and help get to IHM.

If you are willing to open your home, please reach out to Kaitlyn at kblandford@ihmindy.org

Punta Gorda Catholic Church

Former IHM Parishioner Matt Javit is returning to IHM to speak about his experiences & how the money raised from the IHM community helped the Punta Gorda Catholic Church over the past two years in Honduras. He will speak at the masses October 11-12.

A detailed description of the work provided from the money raised last year can be found on their website at <https://pgcatholicchurch.org/ihm/>.

A second collection will go to help the church make much-needed changes to the inside of the church and infrastructure.

The late homeless advocate Mitch Snyder asked a question that still convicts the conscience today:

"The question is not, 'Why are people homeless?' The question is,

'Why do we allow it?'"
