Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

A priest I know was once falsely accused of a terrible crime. The claim was wild and easily disproved, but for a while, it didn't matter. In the atmosphere shaped by the abuse crisis of the early 2000s, the public assumption was guilty until proven innocent. His name was dragged through the mud, and his ministry placed on hold. I had the privilege — and the burden — of walking closely with him during that time.

He was angry. He was confused. He felt abandoned and deeply disoriented. The last thing on his mind was the words of Jesus in today's Gospel: "Blessed are you when they insult you and persecute you and utter every kind of evil against you falsely because of me ... Rejoice and be glad" (Matthew 5:11-12). Rejoice? He felt anything but.

And yet... something holy slowly grew in him. Not overnight, and not without pain. But as the truth came to light and his name was cleared, I watched him become more Christlike — more patient, more compassionate, more detached from human approval.

Maybe you haven't faced something so dramatic. But where do you feel judged? Misrepresented? Overlooked? Maybe someone else got the credit or the promotion. Maybe someone you love isn't getting their due. In those moments, the Cross of Jesus is near. When we feel accused, that's when we ask him for the grace not just to endure, but somehow, mysteriously, to rejoice and be glad.

— Father John Muir

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

Blessed are the poor, the meek, the persecuted. These are radical words in a world that insists the opposite: blessed are the wealthy. Blessed are the forceful. Blessed are the comfortable. Do we have what it takes to be radical?

You're Invited

Who?

All parishioners are welcome! We especially encourage the attendance of those families who are a part of our school ministry, who love IHM and who are interested in the topics of tuition, financial stability, top-tier facilities and excellence in Catholic education here at IHM for the future!

What?

Help us seize the moment! You are invited to a conversation with Fr. Pat about the significant opportunity before us as we prepare for next school year when all of our school families will be eligible for the universal school choice voucher in Indiana.

Where?

The Gathering Space

When?

7:00pm - 8:30pm on Tuesday, February 3rd

Why?

Because as Fr. Pat works with Parish Council and Finance Commission, in consultation with the School Commission, to make some potentially impactful decisions for the long-term, he wants your help in discerning God's will for our community. Come Holy Spirit!

Why now?

Because it's almost budget time! As the parish and school administration prepare to work with the Finance Committee to develop our annual operating budget for FY 2027, this conversation can help us be attentive to the promptings of the Holy Spirit through the members of our parish family.

No RSVP required.

Our IHM PTO is Out of this World!

Oh my stars, did we have some exciting opportunities at IHM recently! Our school gymnasium transformed into a trip into outer space with the mobile planetarium from Mobile Ed Productions, Inc. From moon landings to flying through space to visit every planet, every grade level got to experience our solar system in a special way! OUTER space truly came INSIDE to help us learn more about God's outstanding creation.

We also shared in Disability Awareness Week with special visits from the Puppeteers of the Joseph Maley Foundation. These special student-led performances bring wonderful learning opportunities to our children about how we are all more alike than different, and truly God's special gifts! Thank you to our AMAZING PTO for making these experiences possible!

LeaderinMe

You can use the 7 Habits in many places, such as basketball, by using Habit 1, be proactive by telling everybody to get in the huddle. Also you can use Habit 2 because you can get to the line to do sprints before they tell you since we do every practice. Lastly you can use Habit 6 synergize by if one teammate on your team messes up the whole play gets messed up.
