Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

A few years ago, I met a woman in my parish who was a successful lawyer. Yet in her free time, she poured her energy into a nonprofit she founded to advocate for children with special needs. When I asked what inspired her, she spoke of her niece, who was born with disabilities. Her niece was both a glorious gift and a constant challenge. Out of that painful, beautiful experience, she felt called to create something lasting for other children and parents. The nonprofit thrived, not because she had mapped it all out, but because she was deeply moved to act.

In today's Gospel, Jesus is "moved with compassion" for the crowd, for they were "like sheep without a shepherd." (Matthew 9:36) So he calls his disciples, ordinary men with no special qualifications, and sends them to heal, preach, and cast out demons. Their mission flows not from their skills but from his authority and the Spirit's gifts.

The Second Vatican Council teaches that the Spirit continually pours out charisms, special graces for the good of the Church and the world (cf. Lumen Gentium 4 & 12). These often arise from the unfolding of our lives: from what breaks your heart, what fills you with hope, what suffering has shaped you. The Spirit works through those very experiences to equip us with gifts that build up others.

What is your charism? Well, what needs around you call you to loving action? This could be where Christ is sending you. Allow your heart to be moved like Christ's. Then get to work.

— Father John Muir

Prayer of Discipleship

Dear Jesus,
You've called every soul to yourself, aware of our faults and failures, but also our gifts, perspectives, our talents, and our dreams. As we grow to know you, help us to more fully understand ourselves and, in doing so, to use our unique positions to spread your love to the world.
Amen.

Anointing of the Sick

This sacrament is offered to people who are seriously ill, injured, elderly, or about to undergo surgery or other medical procedures.

Call Fr. Pat at the Parish Office.

Inspiration of the Week

In his mercy, Jesus sent his Apostles into ministry — and the Apostles are still ministering today. We see them in the sanctuary, in the confessional. They are our priests, sent to shepherd Christ's sheep. This week, let's pray for our shepherds.

Eucharistic Adoration

Adoration is offered after the 5:30 pm Mass Wednesdays. We welcome you to come when you are able, and encourage you to sign up and commit as an attendant for Eucharistic Adoration. You may sign up at: <https://www.signupgenius.com/go/20F0849AFAE29A4F58-eucharistic#/> is a yearly recognition of one catechist from each parish in the Archdiocese of Indianapolis. They honor a teacher of the Catholic faith who has a strong, personal relationship with Jesus, inspires others to live such a relationship, and is a joyful witness to the goodness and beauty of a Catholic life.

✦ The Catechesis for Discipleship Award

✦ We are pleased to present our parish's 2026 award to Nicole Masoudi. Thank you for shining a bright light on the ministry of catechesis by being an exemplary teacher of CLOW. Also for being the lead of our Family Life and Faith Formation ministry.

God Bless you Nicole!

Outreach

IHM hosts the community dinner at Anna's House for the Lord's Pantry on the 4th Wednesday of each month.

A heartfelt thank you to our St. Anthony's School Ministry Outreach Leader, Dave Stuhldreher, for coordinating another wonderful day of service and community at IHM. The Men's Group, along with Byrnes's Pizza, generously served lunch to 270 students and 30 staff members yesterday.
